

Pauline E. Peters

DIVIDING
THE COMMONS
POLITICS, POLICY, AND CULTURE IN BOTSWANA

University Press of Virginia

Charlottesville and London

CONTENTS

- Foreword by Sara Berry / vii
- Preface / xi
- Chapter 1* Introduction / 1
- Chapter 2* Political Transformation: Morafe
into District / 22
- Chapter 3* “Our Complaint Is about Water”:
The Politics of Water Development
in the Bechuanaland Protectorate / 50
- Chapter 4* Setting the Terms of Policy Debate:
Expansion and Control in the Common Range, 1950s to 1960s / 76
- Chapter 5* “We Are Hemmed In”: Cattle,
Boreholes, and Syndicates / 95
- Chapter 6* Constriction and Division in the Commons / 114
- Chapter 7* Policies, Paradigms, and Practices:
The Tribal Grazing Land Policy
of Botswana / 138
- Chapter 8* Dividing the Commons: Belonging and Difference in the Kgatleng / 165
- Chapter 9* Competition over Land and the Cultural Politics of Social Differentiation / 190

Chapter 10 Conclusions / 218

Appendix / 237

Notes / 239

Bibliography / 257

Index / 275