

H A R R Y H A R D I N G

---

A FRAGILE RELATIONSHIP

---

The United States and
China since 1972

---

The Brookings Institution | Washington, D.C.

C O N T E N T S

---

1. Overview / 1
  - Twenty Years' Evolution / 5
  - Changing Contexts / 9
  - Substantive Issues / 13
  - The Shifting Political Base / 16
  - Prospects and Recommendations / 20

2. Breakthrough / 23
  - Hostility / 25
  - Rapprochement / 33
  - Complications / 47
  - Unofficial Relations / 54
  - Ambivalence / 60

3. Normalization / 67
  - Continued Stalemate / 68
  - Progress toward Normalization / 75
  - Congress Revisits Taiwan / 82
  - An Expanding Strategic Relationship / 87
  - The Growth of Economic and Cultural Ties / 94
  - The Sino-American Honeymoon / 100

4. Estrangement / 107
  - Reagan and Taiwan / 108
  - China's Independent Foreign Policy / 119

- Growing Pains / 125
Disenchantment / 131
5. Reconciliation / 138
Back on Track / 141
Economic and Cultural Ties / 145
Taiwan / 154
Strategic Relations / 162
American Euphoria / 169
6. Storm Clouds / 173
The Decline of the Anti-Soviet Rationale / 174
Growing Divergence on Strategic Issues / 180
Economic and Cultural Problems / 189
Human Rights / 198
Forebodings / 206
7. Crisis / 215
Crisis in Tiananmen / 216
The Bush Administration's Response / 224
The Congressional Response / 230
The Chinese Response / 235
Mutual Disillusionment / 239
8. Deadlock / 247
Washington's Year-End Initiative / 250
The First Debate over China's Most-Favored-Nation
Status / 260
The Persian Gulf Crisis / 269

-
- The Second Debate over China's Most-Favored-Nation
Status / 275
- The Second Bush Strategy / 280
- The Broader Relationship / 283
- The Mood / 290
9. Prospects / 297
- A Renewed Strategic Alignment / 302
- Diverse Relations with a Fragmented China / 305
- A Renewed Partnership in China's Reform / 307
- A Second Period of Confrontation / 313
- A Strained Relationship / 319
- Conclusion / 322
10. Redesigning American China Policy / 325
- Security / 331
- Commerce / 335
- Human Rights / 340
- Taiwan and Hong Kong / 345
- Academic and Cultural Exchanges / 350
- The Global Agenda / 353
- A New Relationship with China / 358
- APPENDIXES
- A. Tables and Figure / 363
- B. The Shanghai Communiqué / 373
- C. Documents on the Normalization of U.S.-China Relations / 379
- D. Documents on U.S. Arms Sales to Taiwan / 383

Notes / 391

Index / 445

TABLES

- A-1. U.S. Public Opinion of China / 363
- A-2. U.S.-China Bilateral Trade, 1971-90 / 364
- A-3. Commodity Composition of U.S. Imports from China, 1971-90 / 365
- A-4. Commodity Composition of U.S. Exports to China, 1971-90 / 366
- A-5. Chinese Students and Scholars Entering the United States, 1979-90 / 367
- A-6. Americans in China, 1980-90 / 367
- A-7. Foreign Direct Investment in China, 1978-90 / 368
- A-8. Taiwan-Mainland Trade, 1978-90 / 368
- A-9. Taiwan's Tourism and Investment in the Mainland, 1986-90 / 369
- A-10. U.S. Military Sales to Taiwan, 1972-90 / 370
- A-11. U.S. Military Sales to China, 1972-90 / 371

FIGURE

- A-1. Percent of Americans Having a Favorable Opinion of China / 372