

ACTIONS AND STRUCTURE

Research Methods and Social Theory

edited by
Nigel G. Fielding

SAGE Publications
London · Newbury Park · Beverly Hills · New Delhi

Contents

Notes on contributors	vi
Introduction Between micro and macro Nigel G. Fielding	1
1 The micro-social order Towards a reconception Karin Knorr-Cetina	20
2 Autonomy among social theories The incarnation of social structures Wes Sharrock and Rod Watson	54
3 Semiotics and social theory The analysis of organizational beliefs Peter K. Manning	78
4 Micro-sociology and power A natural history of research on policy-making Paul Rock	99
5 Micro-sociology and micro-economics Selling by social control Colin Clark and Trevor Pinch	117
6 Micro-sociology and the 'duality of structure' Former Fascists 'doing' life history John D. Brewer	142
7 Individual and social connections A perspective from the Q -analysis method John Scott and Peter Cowley	167
8 The 'structuration' of action Inference and comparative narratives Peter Abell	185
Conclusion Micro-sociology and macro-theory Nigel G. Fielding	197
Index	199