

Russian
Economic
Reform at Risk

Edited by Anders Åslund

P I N T E R

London and New York

Distributed in the United States and Canada by St. Martin's Press

Contents

List of Contributors	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Anders Åslund	1
1 Macroeconomic Policy and Stabilisation in Russia Boris G. Fedorov	9
2 Russia's Transition: Muddling Through Jacques Delpla and Charles Wyplosz	19
3 Why Russia Has Failed to Stabilize Jeffrey D. Sachs	53
4 Farewell, Ruble Zone Brigitte Granville	65
5 Russian Privatization in Mid-1994 Anatoly Chubais and Maria Vishnevskaya	89
6 Russian Restructuring and Social Benefits Maxim Boycko and Andrei Shleifer	99
7 Labour Market Adjustment – the Russian Way Richard Layard and Andrea Richter	119
8 The Russian Mortality Crisis and Its Causes Judith Shapiro	149
9 The Political Economy of Russia's Reform Sergei A. Vasiliev	179
10 The Politics of Economic Reform: Remaining Tasks Anders Åslund	187
Index	207