

PRIVATIZATION

R MADSEN PIRIE

resident

the Adam Smith Institute

London

Oldwood House

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
------------------	-----

PART I

1. Introduction	3
2. Problem Areas for the Public Sector	17
3. Attempts to Solve Public Sector Problems	36
4. An Alternative Approach	51

PART II THE TECHNIQUES

5. Method One: Selling the whole by public share issue	69
6. Method Two: Selling a proportion of the whole operation	88
7. Method Three: Selling parts to private buyers	109
8. Method Four: Selling to workforce or management	124
9. Method Five: Giving to the workforce	137
10. Method Six: Contracting out the service to private business	140
11. Method Seven: Diluting the public sector	157
12. Method Eight: Buying out existing interest groups	167
13. Method Nine: Charging for the service	172
14. Method Ten: Setting up counter-groups	177
15. Method Eleven: Deregulation via private associations	186

vi    PRIVATIZATION IN THEORY & PRACTICE

16. Method Twelve: Encouraging alternative institutions	193
17. Method Thirteen: Making small-scale trials	198
18. Method Fourteen: Repealing monopolies to let competition grow	205
19. Method Fifteen: Encouraging exit from state provision	217
20. Method Sixteen: Using vouchers	224
21. Method Seventeen: Admitting demand pressures	229
22. Method Eighteen: Curbing state powers	236
23. Method Nineteen: Applying closure proceedings	241
24. Method Twenty: Withdrawal from the activity	245
25. Method Twenty-one: The right to private substitution	249

PART III

26. Future privatization in Britain	255
27. Privatization outside Britain	295
28. Privatization in developing countries	315
29. Conclusion	329
Appendix	333
Index	361