

STEPHEN ELLIS

The Mask of Anarchy

The Destruction of Liberia and the Religious Dimension of an African Civil War

HURST & COMPANY, LONDON

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page vii
Acronyms	xiii
Introduction: African wars	1
A death in the night	1
War and barbarism	17
Part I. A CHRONICLE
Chapters
1. The First of the Warlords	31
A frontier society	31
Government, trade and politics	43
Chairman Doe	54
Quiwonkpa's legacy: the NPFL	65
2. Lean and Hungry Years	75
The Nimba County campaign	75
Splits in the NPFL	80
Greater and Lesser Liberia	87
New factions	94
Monrovia, 1996: the final battle	104
3. The Mechanics of War	110
Punishing Monrovia	112
The profit motive	120
Factions as political organisations	132
Military organisations and civilian life	141
4. Business and Diplomacy	150
The West African balance of power	151
The game of nations	158
Markets and rackets	164
Colonies and non-colonies	181

Part II. AN INQUIRY

5. A Nation Long Forlorn	191
Settlers and others	191
The politics of stateless societies	198
Liberian administration	206
The Liberian state	211
6. Men and Devils	220
Poro business is eating business	223
Secret societies under Liberian administration	237
The political assimilation of religious ritual	245
Ritual killing and modern politics	249
War, power and the spiritual order	259
The psychology of transformation	266
7. False Prophets	281
Politicians	281
A conflict of generations	285
Culture and imagination	291
Some implications for the wider world	304
The family tree	309
Annexes
A. Casualties of the Liberian war, 1989-97	312
B. List of principal characters	317
Bibliography	321
Index	339