

The Challenge of Reform in Indochina

EDITED BY

Börje Ljunggren

Harvard Institute for International Development
Harvard University

Distributed by Harvard University Press

Contents

Contributors vii

Preface xi

1

Reforming the Economic Systems of Vietnam and Laos 1

Dwight H. Perkins

2

Indochina beyond the Cold War: The Chill from Eastern Europe 19

Nayan Chanda

3

Market Economies under Communist Regimes: Reform in Vietnam,
Laos, and Cambodia 39

Börje Ljunggren

4

Laos: Decentralization and Economic Control 123

Bernard Funck

5

"Beyond Suffering": The Recent History of a Cambodian Village 149

May Ebihara

6

Vietnam at the Starting Point: Just Another Successful
Asian Economy? 167

David Dapice

7
	Food Policy and Economic Reform in Vietnam	183
	C. Peter Timmer
8
	Vietnam; Successes and Failures of Macroeconomic Stabilization	207
	David Dollar
9
	Population, Health, and Gender in Vietnam: Social Policies under the Economic Reforms	233
	Joan Kaufman and Gita Sen
10
	Economic Reform and the Intensification of Rituals in Two North Vietnamese Villages, 1980–90	259
	Hy V. Luong
11
	The Political Economy of “Reform” in Vietnam—Some Reflections	293
	Adam Fforde
12
	Political Renovation in Vietnam: Renewal and Adaptation	327
	William S. Turley
13
	Concluding Remarks: Key Issues in the Reform Process	349
	Börje Ljunggren
	Appendix	385
	Index	387