
Becoming Japanese

the world of the pre-school
child

Joy Hendry

MANCHESTER UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Introduction	page 1
Chapter I Japanese views of children	10
II The arenas and agents of socialisation	47
III Aims and aspirations	71
IV Techniques of training: home and neighbourhood	96
V The kindergarten and day nursery: formal entry into a social world	119
VI The world view presented to the child	153
Appendix I Interview families	178
II Questions put to the interview families	180
III Questionnaire circulated to parents of Shirayuri Kindergarten	181
Bibliography	182
Index	189

Illustrations 1–15 appear between pages 70 and 71