

HARD RIGHT

The New White Power in South Africa

JOHANN VAN ROOYEN

I.B. TAURIS PUBLISHERS
LONDON · NEW YORK

Contents

List of Abbreviations	vii
List of Tables	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Preface	xiii
Chronology	xvii
Introduction	1
1. The Roots of the Right Wing	7
Historical origins	7
The Socio-economic roots of the right	27
Ethnicity and nationalism	35
Roots in racism	49
Roots in fear	54
2. Dimensions of the Right Wing	62
Political parties	63
Intellectual and cultural organizations	78
Religious organizations	85
Civic institutions	88
Paramilitary organizations	91
Right-wing elements within the NP and government institutions	98
English-speaking support for the right wing	103
Financial support for the right wing	107
Right-wing alliances	109
3. The Electoral Struggle for Control of the Afrikaner Destiny: 1981-92	117

4. The Right Wing in the de Klerk Era: from Schism to Unity	156
Broedertwis revisited: apartheid or self-determination?	158
The issue of negotiations	164
Non-violent resistance to reform	170
'People's mobilization': preparing for the 'Third Freedom War'	187
Conclusion: The Prospects of the Right	201
Notes	212
Glossary	217
Concise Bibliography	219
Index	226