

Selecting Immigrants

NATIONAL IDENTITY AND SOUTH AFRICA'S IMMIGRATION POLICIES
1910-2008

SALLY PEBERDY

WITS UNIVERSITY PRESS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vi
Preface	ix
Introduction: Establishing the Territory	1
Immigration, Nations and National Identity	11
‘A White Man’s Land’: Indian Immigration and the 1913 Immigrants Regulation Act	31
Not White Like Us: Preserving the ‘Original Stocks’ and the Exclusion of Jewish Immigrants	57
Building an Unhyphenated Nation: British Immigration and Afrikaner Nationalism	85
One (White) Nation, One Fatherland: Republicanism, Assisted Immigration and the Metaphysical Body	109
Democratic South Africa: Inclusive Identities and Exclusive Immigration Policies	137
Conclusion: Nationalisms, National Identities and South Africa’s Immigration Policies	171
Notes to Chapters	183
Appendix 1: Total, immigration and emigration, and net gain/loss in migration, by sex, 1924–2004	257
Appendix 2: Immigration by country of previous permanent residence, birth and citizenship, 1924–2004	260
Bibliography	291
Index	320