

Political and Economic Trends in Central Asia

edited by

Shirin Akiner

British Academic Press
An imprint of I.B.Tauris & Co Ltd
London · New York

Contents

	page
Foreword Shirin Akiner	vii
Chapter
1 Tradition and Change in Central Asia Malcolm Yapp	1
2 Past Western Imperial Crises: a lesson for forthcoming Eastern ones? Guy G. Imart	11
3 Ethnic Cadres Policy in Uzbekistan Michael Rywkin	38
4 Political Education in Soviet Central Asia Yaacov Ro'i	43
5 Political Developments in Soviet Central Asia: some aspects of the restructuring process in Turkmenistan, Kirgizia and Kazakhstan in the late 1980s Bess A. Brown	62
6 Central Asian Youth Problems: the view from the youth press Martha Brill Olcott	75
7 Agriculture in Central Asia and Kazakhstan in the 1980s Martin McCauley	90

	page
8 Uzbekistan's Economic Prospects Stuart Thompson	102
9 Living Standards in Uzbekistan 1960–84 Alastair McAuley	114
10 Ethnodemographic Problems of Central Asia and Measures for their Solution Victor I. Kozlov	143
11 Through the Contact Lens Darkly: Soviet Muslims and their foreign co-religionists 1926–86 Edward Lazzerini	153
12 Notes on Muslim Theological Education in the USSR in the 1980s James Thrower	175
Epilogue Shirin Akiner	181
Notes	191
Notes on Contributors	205