

THE RELIGION OF THE NABATAEANS

A Conspectus

BY

JOHN F. HEALEY

BRILL
LEIDEN · BOSTON · KÖLN
2001

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Abbreviations in Text	xiii
Note on Transliteration of Names	xiv
List of Maps and Plates and their Sources	xv
Chapter One: Problems of Method and a Survey of Sources	1
Nabataean "Religion"	2
The Study of Dead Religions	3
"Nabataean" Religion	9
The Transformations of Nabataean Religion	13
Syncretism or Assimilation	14
The Sources	17
Epigraphic	17
Archaeological	17
Literary	18
(i) Greek and Latin	18
(ii) Syriac and Arabic	20
Iconographic	21
Onomastic	22
Conclusion	24
Chapter Two: Background: Nabataean History and Trade	25
Nabataean History	25
Nabataean Trade	32
The Nabataean Regions	33
Connections with Arabia	34
Chapter Three: Sacred Places	38
Introduction	38
Religious Installations at Nabataean Sites	39
Petra	39
(i) Temples	39
(ii) Processional Ways	45
(iii) High-places	48
(iv) Locations of Special Cults	49
(v) Tombs	50

Ḥegra and Ruwāfah	53
Wādi Ramm	56
Khirbet et-Tannūr and Khirbet edh-Dhariḥ	59
Southern Syria (Ḥawrān)	62
The Negev, Egypt and Sinai	67
Religious Architecture	71
General	71
Typology of Nabataean Religious Sites	73
Excursus: Architectural and Related Terms	75
Chapter Four: The Nabataean God and Goddess	80
The Nabataean Conception of the Gods	80
Dushara, the Nabataean God	85
Dushara's Assimilation to Non-Nabataean Deities	97
Dushara and A'ra, the God of Bosra	97
Dushara and Dionysos	100
Dushara and Zeus	101
Dushara and the Sun (Helios)	102
Conclusions	106
The Nabataean Goddess: Allāt, al-ʿUzzā	107
Allāt	108
Al-ʿUzzā	114
Chapter Five: Other Deities Worshipped by the Nabataeans	120
Kūtbā and Al-Kutbā	120
Deities of Regional Importance	124
Baalshamin	124
Qōs	126
Hubal	127
Manōtu and Qaysha	132
Foreign Goddesses	137
Isis	137
Atargatis	140
Evidence of Other Deities	141
The Protective Deities	143
Shayʿ-al-Qawm	143
Personal Deities: the Divine Obodas	147
Family Deities	151
City Deities: Tyches, Ṣaʿbu, Gad of the Nabataeans	153
State Deities: the God of the King	154

Chapter Six: Images and Rituals	155
Objects of Worship	155
Cult-niches and Images of Gods	155
The mwtb ⁹ and Altars	158
Sacred Times and Persons	160
Festivals	160
Ritual Action: Offerings	161
Personnel	163
Private Cults	165
The marzēhā and the triclinium	165
Tombs and the Dead	169
Religious Formulae	175
“Remembered be ...”	175
“For the life of ...”	178
 Chapter Seven: The World of Nabataean Religion	 181
A Desert Tradition?	184
Aniconism	185
Emergent Monotheism	189
Nabataean Religion in the pre-Islamic Context	191
 Bibliography	 211
 Indices	 235