

The Modern Origins of the Early Middle Ages

IAN WOOD

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

1. 300–700	1
2. The Franks and the State of France	19
3. The Old German Constitution	37
4. The Barbarians and the Fall of Rome	52
5. Empire and Aftermath	74
6. Nation, Class, and Race	94
7. The Lombards and the Risorgimento	113
8. Heirs of the Martyrs	137
9. Language, Law, and National Boundaries	154
10. Romans, Barbarians, and Prussians	174
11. Teutons, Romans, and ‘Scientific’ History	199
12. About Belgium: The Impact of the Great War	222
13. Past Settlements: Interpretations of the Migration Period from 1918 to 1945	245
14. Christian Engagement in the Interwar Period	268
15. The Emergence of Late Antiquity	287
16. Presenting a New Europe	310
Bibliography	330
Index	365