

JEWES AND THE RENAISSANCE OF SYNAGOGUE
ARCHITECTURE, 1450–1730

BY

Barry L. Stiefel

PICKERING & CHATTO
2014

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|------|
| Acknowledgements | xi |
| List of Figures and Tables | xiii |
| Preface | xv |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 Medieval versus Early Modern Synagogues | 7 |
| 2 Jews, Synagogues and Compulsory Urban Consolidation at the Dawn of the Early Modern Period | 35 |
| 3 Urbanization and Jewish Public Space: The First Great Synagogues | 61 |
| 4 Readmission and Colonial Frontiers: New Synagogues in Lands of Tolerance | 83 |
| 5 Jews and Early Modern Cultural Exchanges: Cross-Pollination and its Effects on Synagogue Design | 103 |
| 6 Lavishing the House of Assembly: Synagogues, Global Trade and Exotic Ornamentation | 135 |
| Conclusion: From Early Modern to Modern: Synagogues in Transition | 147 |
| Glossary | 159 |
| Notes | 161 |
| Works Cited | 191 |
| Index | 211 |