

National Socialism and Gypsies in Austria

ERIKA THURNER

Edited and Translated by Gilya Gerda Schmidt

With a Foreword by Michael Berenbaum

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA PRESS
TUSCALOOSA AND LONDON

Contents

Foreword vii

Editor/Translator's Introduction xi

Author's Introduction to the American Edition xv

Author's Introduction to the First Edition xix

Abbreviations xxi

1. Comments on the State of the Literature and Sources 1

2. Ideological Foundations and Legal Ordinances
Regarding the Persecution of Gypsies 7

3. The Situation of the Gypsies in Salzburg before 1939 and Gypsy Camp Salzburg (1939–1943) 19
Amended Presentation of Gypsy Camp(s) Salzburg:
Salzburg-Maxglan/Leopoldskron or Salzburg-Rennbahn 28

4. Discrimination and Persecution of the Burgenland Gypsies 36

5. Camp Lackenbach 42

6. Gypsy Transports from Austria to Lodz and Chelmno 102

7. Gypsies as Subjects of Medical Experiments 106

8. Concluding Remarks 128

Appendix of Relevant Documents	131
--------------------------------	-----

Notes	135
-------	-----

Bibliography	187
--------------	-----

Index	203
-------	-----