

SLAPSTICK COMEDY

AFI FILM READERS SERIES

EDITED BY

TOM PAULUS AND ROB KING

contents

illustrations	ix
acknowledgments	xi
introduction: restoring slapstick to the historiography of american film tom paulus and rob king	1 part one
originality and adaptation	19
1. the good thieves: on the origins of situation comedy in the british music hall bryony dixon	21
2. d. w. griffith shapes slapstick barry salt	37
3. genre parody and comedic burlesque: keystone's meta-cinematic satires simon joyce	49
4. both sides of the camera: roscoe "fatty" arbuckle's evolution at keystone joanna e. rapf	67
5. mud pies and tears: little mary's funny side anke brouwers	89
part two
mechanics and modernity	105
6. mack sennett vs. henry ford eileen bowser	107
7. "uproarious inventions": the keystone film company, modernity, and the art of the motor rob king	114
8. mechanisms of laughter: the devices of slapstick tom gunning	137

9. slapstick skyscrapers: an architecture of attractions steven jacobs	152
10. california slapstick revisited charles wolfe	169
part three
bodies and performance	191
11. dancing on fire and water: charlot and l'esprit nouveau amy sargeant	193
12. splashes of fun and beauty: mack sennett's bathing beauties hilde d'haeyere	207
13. back to the "slap": slapstick's hyperbolic gesture and the rhetoric of violence muriel andrin	226
14. the art of imitation: the originality of charlie chaplin and other moving-image myths jennifer m. bean	236
contributors	262
index	265