

A grammar of Wangkajunga:
a language of the Great Sandy Desert
of North Western Australia

Barbara Jones

Pacific Linguistics
College of Asia and the Pacific
The Australian National University

Table of contents

Wangkajunga consultants	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxiv
Preface	xxvi
Abbreviations and conventions	xxviii
Maps	xxxi
1 The language and its speakers	1
Introduction	1
1.1 The traditional lives of the Wangkajunga people	1
1.1.1 The Canning Stock Route	3
1.1.2 The move to the cattle stations	4
1.1.3 The government settlement at Moola Bulla	5
1.2 The Wangkajunga social system	6
1.3 The Wangkajunga language	9
1.3.1 Linguistic type	9
1.3.2 The contents of this grammar	10
1.3.3 The meaning of the language name	11
1.4 Linguistic grouping in the Western Desert in northern Western Australia	11
1.4.1 Lexical comparison of Wangkajunga, other Western Desert languages and Walmajarri	12
1.4.2 Warmman	13
1.4.3 Language1 and language2 terms	13
1.4.4 Traditional linguistic grouping in the Western Desert in Western Australia	14
1.4.4.1 Language1 names in the Western Desert	14
1.4.4.2 Modern linguistic grouping in the Western Desert of Western Australia	16
1.4.4.3 Speakers' use of the name 'Wangkajunga'	18
1.5 Numbers of speakers and current locations	18
1.6 Previous work on the language	20
1.6.1 Wangkajunga	20

1.6.2	Work on other northwestern languages of the Western Desert language.....	20
1.6.2.1	Yulparija	20
1.6.2.2	Manyjilyjarra and Kartujarra	21
1.6.2.3	Kukatja.....	21
1.6.3	Research on and literacy materials for other languages of the Western Desert.....	22
1.6.3.1	Pintupi.....	22
1.6.3.2	Ngaanyatjarra, Pitjantjatjara and Yankunytjatjara and Gugada	22
1.7	Fieldwork methodology	22
1.7.1	Consultants.....	22
1.7.2	Elicitation	23
1.7.3	Field trips	24
1.7.4	Recording texts.....	24
1.7.5	Financial support.....	25
2	Phonology	26
	Introduction.....	26
2.1	The Wangkajunga phoneme inventory.....	26
2.1.1	Wangkajunga consonants.....	27
2.1.1.1	Apical contrasts	27
2.1.1.2	Pronunciation of stops and nasals.....	28
2.1.1.3	Laminal contrasts.....	29
2.1.1.4	Rhotic contrasts	29
2.1.1.5	Pronunciation of rhotics.....	30
2.1.1.6	The distribution of /r/ and /rr/	30
2.1.1.7	Approximants	30
2.1.1.8	Pronunciation of glides.....	30
2.1.2	Wangkajunga vowels	31
2.1.2.1	Pronunciation of vowels	31
2.1.2.2	Long vowels	33
2.2	Phonotactics.....	33
2.2.1	Word initial consonants.....	34
2.2.2	Root final consonants.....	34
2.2.3	Consonant clusters	35
2.2.3.1	Intra-morphemic consonant clusters.....	35
2.2.3.2	Inter-morphemic consonant clusters.....	37
2.2.4	Consonant final restrictions.....	38
2.2.4.1	The epenthetic syllable 'pa'	38
2.2.4.2	Where the epenthetic syllable -pa is not added	39

2.2.4.3	Insertion of a vowel	40
2.3	The minimal word in Wangkajunga	40
2.3.1	Ka and maa	40
2.4	Morphophonemics	41
2.4.1	Ergative -lu , -ju , -tu	41
2.4.2	Locative -ngka , -ja , -ta	42
2.4.3	Other morphophonemic changes	42
2.4.3.1	Consonant alternation	42
2.4.3.2	Vowel insertion	42
2.4.3.3	Vowel deletion	43
2.4.3.4	Vowel insertion	43
2.4.3.5	Syllable deletion	43
2.5	Stress	44
2.6	Intonation	46
2.6.1	Conversation intonation	46
2.6.1.1	Question intonation	46
2.6.1.2	Imperative intonation	46
2.6.1.3	Request intonation	46
2.6.2	Intonations used in texts	47
2.6.2.1	Quotation intonation	47
2.6.2.2	Whispered intonation	47
2.6.2.3	Extended distance or height intonation	48
2.6.2.4	List intonation	48
2.6.2.5	Other narrative intonation	49
2.7	Comparative phonology of neighbouring Ngumbic languages and languages of the Western Desert	49
2.7.1	The phoneme inventories	49
2.7.2	The phonological structure of words	50
2.7.3	The syllable -pa	50
2.7.3.1	Ngaanyatjarra	51
2.7.3.2	Yankunytjatjara	51
2.7.3.3	Walmajarri	52
3	Word classes	53
	Introduction	53
3.1	Nominals	53
3.1.1	Common nominals	54
3.1.2	Proper nominals	54
3.1.3	Pronouns	54
3.1.4	Demonstratives	55

3.1.5	Manner nominals and active nominals	55
3.1.6	Temporal and spatial nominals	55
3.1.6.1	Temporal nominals	55
3.1.6.2	Direction nominals	55
3.2	Verbs	55
3.3	Minor parts of speech	56
3.3.1	Sentence modifiers	56
3.3.2	Time modifiers	56
3.3.3	Spatial modifiers	56
3.4	Other minor parts of speech -particles	56
3.5	Other minor parts of speech -exclamations	57
3.5.1	Agreeing	57
3.5.2	Disagreeing	57
3.5.3	Polite expressions	57
3.5.4	Impolite expressions	58
3.5.5	Giving warnings	58
3.5.6	Coming, going and giving	58
3.6	Other minor parts of speech -ideophones	58
3.6.1	Sounds made by birds	59
3.6.2	Sounds made by animals	59
3.6.3	Sounds made by instruments	59
3.6.4	Sounds made by people	59
4	Nominal morphology	60
	Introduction	60
4.1	Generic nominals, nominal reduplication and compound nominals	60
4.1.1	Generic nominals	60
4.1.2	Nominal reduplication	62
4.1.2.1	Reduplication of nominals that exist as independent words	62
4.1.2.2	Frozen reduplication	64
4.1.2.3	Reduplication as a template for new words	65
4.1.3	Compound nominals	65
4.2	Derivational affixes	66
4.2.1	Having /lacking thing or property	67
4.2.1.1	- kurlu (HAV) 'having'	67
4.2.1.2	- pinti (THING) 'associated thing'	69
4.2.1.3	- parni (PRIV) privative	69
4.2.1.4	- kija (INT) intentive	70
4.2.1.5	- jiraja (WANT) 'want'	70
4.2.2	Associated time and space	70

4.2.2.1	-jarra (ASST) ‘associated time or space’	70
4.2.2.2	-puru (TEMP) ‘temporal’	71
4.2.2.3	-karraja (DWELL) ‘dweller’	72
4.2.2.4	-karti (SIDE) ‘side’	73
4.2.3	Comparison of properties	73
4.2.3.1	-partu (TYPE) ‘type’	73
4.2.3.2	-yuru (SIM) ‘similar’	73
4.2.3.3	-munu (CONTR) contradictory	74
4.2.3.4	-marta (MOD) moderative	74
4.2.3.5	-paka (BIG) ‘very big’	74
4.2.3.6	-kujupa (ANOTH) ‘another’	75
4.2.3.7	-minyirri (VERY) ‘very’	75
4.2.3.8	-nguninji (FOC) ‘focus’	75
4.2.4	Number and groups	76
4.2.4.1	-marlu (NUM) numerative	76
4.2.4.2	-kujarra (DUAL) dual	76
4.2.4.3	-paraku (FEW) ‘few’	76
4.2.4.4	-n, -rti (PL) plural	76
4.2.5	Suffixes added to human entities	77
4.2.5.1	-ngurun (PA) (GRP) group	77
4.2.6	Suffixes added to kin terms	77
4.2.6.1	-rarra (PAIR) Kinship Dyad	77
4.3	Case inflections	78
4.4	The grammatical cases	79
4.4.1	The Ergative case	80
4.4.1.1	The Agent of an activity	81
4.4.1.2	The Experiencer of an activity	81
4.4.1.3	The Force of an activity	81
4.4.1.4	Inanimate agents with Ergative case	82
4.4.2	The Absolutive case	82
4.4.2.1	The Absolutive case and the -nga suffix	83
4.4.3	The Dative case	84
4.4.3.1	The purpose of an activity	84
4.4.3.2	The beneficiary of an activity	85
4.4.3.3	Verbs of locution with dative arguments	86
4.4.3.4	Single argument verbs with dative complements	86
4.4.3.5	The reason, source, or cause of emotions	87
4.4.3.6	Dative marked nominals indicating possession	88

4.5	The semantic cases	88
4.5.1	The Locative case.....	89
4.5.2	The Perlative case	91
4.5.3	The Allative case.....	92
4.5.4	The Ablative case.....	92
4.5.4.1	The -janu Ablative suffix	93
4.5.4.2	The -nguru Ablative suffix	94
4.5.5	Local cases with animate places	95
4.5.5.1	Locative	95
4.5.5.2	Allative	95
4.5.5.3	Ablative	95
4.5.6	The Avoidance case	95
4.5.7	The Genitive case.....	96
4.5.7.1	-kurnu (POSS) genitive	96
4.5.7.2	-kura (POSS) Genitive.....	96
4.5.7.3	-kurangu (POSS) Genitive.....	96
4.6	Derivational case	97
4.7	Temporal and spatial nominals.....	97
4.7.1	Temporal modifiers and other temporal expressions	98
4.7.1.1	Times of the day	98
4.7.1.2	Directions.....	98
4.7.1.3	Ego-centric direction terms	99
4.8	Comparing nominal morphology	99
4.8.1	Grammatical case marking on sub-classes of nominals.....	100
4.8.1.1	Common nouns.....	101
4.8.1.2	Proper nouns and free pronouns	101
4.8.1.3	Bound pronouns.....	101
4.8.2	Grammatical and semantic case forms.....	101
4.8.2.1	The Western Desert	102
4.8.2.2	Northern Western Desert – Yulparija, Wangkajunga, Kukatja, Manyjilyjarra.....	102
4.8.2.3	Northern Non-Western Desert languages.....	102
4.8.2.4	-ngka/-la locative.....	103
5	Pronouns and demonstratives.....	105
	Introduction.....	105
5.1	Personal pronouns	105
5.1.1	Case marking on personal pronouns	107
5.1.1.1	Grammatical case marking on personal pronouns.....	107
5.1.1.2	Semantic case marking on personal pronouns.....	108

5.1.2	palunya	109
5.1.2.1	palunya case marking	110
5.1.2.2	palunya as the single nominal referring to an argument..	110
5.1.2.3	palunya referring to a single or several participants	111
5.1.2.4	palunya as a marker of definiteness.....	111
5.2	Demonstratives	112
5.2.1	Demonstratives and case marking.....	114
5.2.2	Demonstratives and deictic function	115
5.2.2.1	ngaa ‘this’, ‘these’	115
5.2.2.2	jii ‘that’, ‘those’	115
5.2.2.3	nyarra ‘that’, ‘those’	116
5.2.3	Demonstratives with presentative function	116
5.2.4	Other functions of jii	117
5.2.4.1	jii as a topic marker.....	117
5.2.4.2	jii as a sentence modifier.....	117
5.2.5	Locative demonstratives.....	117
5.2.6	Yangka ‘that known’	118
5.3	Interrogative pronouns.....	120
5.3.1	ngana ‘what’	120
5.3.2	wanja, jaatu ‘where’	120
5.3.3	nyangula ‘when’	121
5.4	Indefinite pronouns.....	121
5.4.1	ngana ‘someone’	121
5.4.2	maarra ‘somewhere’	122
5.5	Whatsaname.....	122
5.6	Comparison of deictic forms	123
5.6.1	Comparison of free pronouns	123
5.6.1.1	Shared Western Desert forms	124
5.6.1.2	Northern Western Desert – Yulparija, Wangkajunga, Kukatja, Manyjilyjarra.....	125
5.6.1.3	Pintupi.....	126
5.6.1.4	Northern non-Western Desert Warlpiri, Jaru, Walmajarri and Nyangumarta.....	126
5.6.1.5	The pronouns of Warnman	126
5.6.2	Comparison of demonstratives	126
5.6.2.1	Demonstratives in Western Desert language names.....	128
6	Agreement and cross-referencing.....	129
	Introduction.....	129
6.1	Case marking and agreement.....	129

6.1.1	The use of case-markers to mark an argument and an attribute.....	130
6.1.1.1	Modifier and a thing modified.....	130
6.1.1.2	Generic and specific nominals.....	130
6.1.1.3	Part-whole relationships.....	130
6.1.1.4	Agent and manner.....	131
6.1.1.5	Agent and activity.....	131
6.1.1.6	Agent and instrument.....	132
6.1.1.7	Discontinuous nominals.....	132
6.1.2	The use of case agreement to mark items in a list.....	132
6.1.3	The use of case agreement to mark time.....	133
6.1.3.1	Sentence modifiers - palunyajanu , palunyangka	133
6.1.3.2	Common nominals and active nominals.....	133
6.1.4	The use of case to mark a relationship between an argument and a clause.....	134
6.1.5	Double case marking.....	134
6.1.5.1	Double case with derivational case.....	134
6.1.5.2	Double case with the genitive suffix.....	134
6.1.5.3	Double case with the HAVING suffix.....	135
6.1.5.4	Double case and active nominals.....	135
6.1.5.5	A single nominal with double case.....	135
6.2	Agreement by cross-referencing bound pronominal clitics.....	135
6.2.1	The Wangkajunga bound pronouns.....	136
6.2.1.1	Subject bound pronouns.....	136
6.2.1.2	Object bound pronouns.....	137
6.2.1.3	Dative bound pronouns.....	138
6.2.1.4	Accessory bound pronouns.....	139
6.2.1.5	Ablative bound pronouns.....	140
6.2.1.6	Reflexive bound pronouns.....	142
6.2.2	Position of pronominal clitic clusters.....	143
6.2.3	Composition of bound pronoun clitics.....	144
6.2.4	Ordering of bound pronoun clitics within a cluster.....	145
6.2.5	Numbers of bound pronouns in a cluster.....	146
6.2.6	Comparison of Wangkajunga bound pronouns with Proto Pama Nyungan pronouns.....	148
6.2.7	Comparison of cross-referencing in the Western Desert and neighbouring Marrngu and Ngumbin languages.....	149
6.2.7.1	General features of cross-referencing clitics.....	149
6.2.7.2	Morphological differences in bound pronouns in the northern Western Desert languages.....	150
6.2.7.3	Comparison of bound pronoun paradigms.....	151
6.2.7.4	Bound pronouns and free pronouns.....	151

7	Verb derivational morphology.....	152
	Introduction.....	152
	7.1 Transitivity.....	152
	7.1.1 The transitivity of the simple verbs.....	153
	7.1.1.1 Simple verbs -ABS.....	154
	7.1.1.2 Simple verbs -ABS-DAT (optional).....	154
	7.1.1.3 Simple verbs -ERG-DAT.....	155
	7.1.1.4 Simple verbs -ERG-ABS.....	156
	7.1.1.5 Simple verbs -ERG-ABS-DAT, -ERG-ABS-ABS.....	157
	7.2 Compounding.....	158
	7.2.1 Verbal roots.....	158
	7.2.2 Preverbs.....	158
	7.2.3 The compound verbs.....	159
	7.2.3.1 Compounds with -jurra	159
	7.2.3.2 Compounds with -puwa	160
	7.2.3.3 Compounds with -kanyila	163
	7.2.3.4 Compounds with -kati	163
	7.2.3.5 Compounds with -yarra	164
	7.2.3.6 Compounds with -ngarrin	165
	7.2.3.7 Compounds with -pakala	165
	7.2.3.8 Compounds with -jarra	166
	7.2.3.9 Other compounds.....	166
	7.3 Reduplication.....	167
	7.3.1 Reduplication of the verb root.....	167
	7.3.2 Reduplication of the nominal or preverb.....	167
	7.4 Derivational suffixes – verbs with more than one argument.....	168
	7.4.1 The -ma causative (CAUS).....	168
	7.4.2 The -ju causative (CAUS).....	169
	7.4.3 Zero-derived causatives (CAUS).....	170
	7.5 Derivational suffixes – verbs with single arguments.....	172
	7.5.1 The inchoative suffix -arri, -rri (INCH).....	172
	7.5.1.1 Change of physiological state inchoatives.....	173
	7.5.1.2 Change of emotional state inchoatives.....	174
	7.5.1.3 Inchoatives describing changes in mental states.....	174
	7.5.1.4 Passage of time inchoatives.....	175
	7.5.1.5 Question words and -rri	176
	7.5.2 The derivational -ti (ACT).....	176
	7.5.3 Sound emission verbs.....	177
	7.6 Directional affixes.....	177

7.6.1	parra- ‘around’	178
7.6.2	maa- ‘away from’	178
7.6.3	-ni ‘towards the speaker’	179
7.6.4	wati- ‘across’	179
7.7	Post-inflectional suffixes	179
7.7.1	-nirra ‘group’ (GRP)	179
7.7.2	-ka completed action (COMPL)	180
7.7.3	-rta warning (WARN)	180
7.8	Comparisons of numbers of simple verbs and of verb roots in the northern Western Desert	180
7.8.1	Numbers of simple verbs	180
7.8.2	Verb roots in the northern Western Desert languages	181
8	Verb inflectional morphology	182
	Introduction	182
8.1	Conjugation classes	182
8.1.1	Conjugation class 1 \emptyset class	182
8.1.2	Conjugation class 2 wa class	183
8.1.3	Conjugation class 3 rra class	183
8.1.4	Conjugation class 4 la class	184
8.2	The inflections	185
8.2.1	Inflectional paradigms	185
8.2.1.1	Other tense aspect and mood inflections	187
8.2.2	Irregular verb ngala ‘eat’	188
8.2.3	Irregular verb nyawa ‘see’	189
8.3	Inflectional suffixes and their meanings	189
8.3.1	Non-declarative speech acts - imperatives	190
8.3.1.1	-\emptyset, -wa, -rra, -la the perfective imperative (IMP)	190
8.3.1.2	-ma the imperfective imperative (IMPIMP)	191
8.3.2	-n, -in, -nin, -nyin present tense (PRES)	191
8.3.3	Past time reference	193
8.3.3.1	-nu, -rnu, -ngu, the perfective past (PST)	193
8.3.3.2	-ma past imperfective (PSTIMP)	194
8.3.3.3	-ma past habitual (PSTHB)	195
8.3.3.4	-\emptyset, -wa, -rra, -la the narrative past (NARPST)	195
8.3.4	Future time reference	196
8.3.4.1	-ku, -ngku, -nku, -lku future perfective (FUT)	196
8.3.4.2	The future tense and the verb ya ‘go’	197
8.3.4.3	-mal future imperfective (FUTIMP)	197
8.4	Inflections that follow irrealis	198
8.4.1	-jaku admonitive (ADMON)	198

8.4.2	- kija intentive (INT)	199
8.4.3	- payi characteristic (CHAR).....	199
8.4.4	- ra unrealised (UNR).....	200
8.4.4.1	- ra ‘lets’	200
8.4.4.2	- ra ‘want’	200
8.4.4.3	- ra ‘should’, ‘must’	201
8.4.4.4	- ra ‘try’.....	201
8.4.4.5	- ra ‘so that’	201
8.4.5	- kuraku , - raku ‘in order to’ purposive (PURP)	201
8.4.6	- mara hypothetical (HYP).....	201
8.4.7	- ngara obligative (OBLIG)	202
8.5	Negating an event	202
8.5.1	The negative particle wiya	202
8.5.2	The intransitive verb wiyarriwa	203
8.5.3	The transitive verb wiyala	203
8.5.4	Negating an event with - munu	204
8.6	Comparison of verbal inflections	204
8.6.1	Conjugation classes	204
8.6.2	Verbal inflections	204
8.6.3	Tense mood and aspect information in the catalyst.....	205
8.6.4	Modal inflections.....	206
9	Serial verb constructions	207
	Introduction	207
9.1	Complex predicates in Wangkajunga	207
9.1.1	The cross-referencing bound pronouns	208
9.1.2	The scope of the negative particle wiya	208
9.2	Types of serial verbs.....	209
9.2.1	Same subject serialisation.....	209
9.2.2	Switch subject serialisation	210
9.2.3	Multiple object serialisation	211
9.2.4	Ambient serialisation.....	211
9.2.5	Numbers and distribution of serial verbs in Wangkajunga	212
9.2.6	Iconicity and Wangkajunga SVCs.....	212
9.3	Compound or serial – the verb jurntala ?	212
9.4	Same tense serial verbs in Wangkajunga	213
9.4.2	The meaning of same tense serial verb constructions – motion verbs	217
9.4.3	The meaning of same tense serial verb constructions – process verbs	219

9.4.4	The meaning of same tense serial verb constructions – adding a beneficiary	220
9.4.5	Serial verb constructions with the negative verb wiyala	220
9.5	The position of the pronominal clitic in SVCs.....	221
9.5.1	Contrasts in tightly and loosely bound SVCs	223
9.6	Serial verb constructions with different aspect markers	223
9.7	SVCs with serial markers	224
9.7.1	The meaning of serial verb constructions – traditional activities.....	225
9.7.2	The meaning of serial verb constructions – stative verbs	226
9.7.3	The meaning of serial verb constructions – characteristic constructions	226
9.8	Serial verb constructions in the Western Desert and four northern non-Western Desert neighbours	227
9.8.1	Inflections on verb combinations in the Western Desert	227
9.8.2	Locatives, la and na particles and serial verb inflections	229
10	Syntax.....	232
	Introduction.....	232
10.1	Nominal constituents.....	232
10.1.1	The position of the pronominal clitic cluster	233
10.1.1.1	Combinations that occur before the clitic but are not nominal constituents	233
10.1.2	Nominal constituents consisting of a head nominal and its modifier	235
10.1.2.1	Noun and attribute	235
10.1.2.2	Attribute only.....	236
10.1.2.3	Nominal and quantifier	237
10.1.2.4	Intensifiers	238
10.1.2.5	Demonstratives	239
10.1.2.6	Generic and specific nominals.....	239
10.1.2.7	Part whole nominals	240
10.1.2.8	Inalienable possession	240
10.1.2.9	Free pronouns	241
10.1.3	Nonhead modifying nominal constituents	242
10.1.3.1	Conjoined nominals.....	242
10.1.3.2	Conjoined nominals with kamu	242
10.1.3.3	Proper names	242
10.1.3.4	Repetitive expressions	243
10.1.3.5	Disjunction.....	243
10.1.3.6	Genitive nominal constituents	244

10.1.3.7	Inclusive constructions.....	244
10.1.3.8	Hesitations.....	245
10.1.3.9	Discontinuous nominal constituents	245
10.1.4	Ordered set of functions	246
10.2	Nominal headed clauses	247
10.2.1	Equative clauses	247
10.2.2	Proper inclusion.....	248
10.2.3	Ascriptive clauses.....	249
10.2.4	Locative clauses with nominal predicates	249
10.2.5	Derived nominals as predicates	249
10.2.6	Two nominals as predicate	250
10.2.7	Nominal headed clauses as questions.....	250
10.2.8	Possessive clauses	250
10.2.9	Negative examples of nominal headed clauses	251
10.3	Copula verbs.....	251
10.3.1	Existential clauses	252
10.3.2	Locative clauses.....	252
10.3.2.1	Nominalised copula verbs.....	253
10.3.3	Possessive clauses with kanyila ‘have’	253
10.4	Verb headed clauses	253
10.4.1	Clauses with single argument verbs with Absolutive subjects.....	254
10.4.2	Clauses with verbs with a single Absolutive argument and an optional Dative argument or optional Locative argument.....	254
10.4.3	Clauses with verbs with two arguments – an Ergative and a Dative.....	254
10.4.4	Clauses with verbs with two arguments – an Ergative and an Absolutive.....	255
10.4.5	Clauses with verbs with three arguments	255
10.5	Grammatical relations.....	255
10.5.1	Cross-referencing of subject.....	256
10.5.2	Cross-referencing of object	257
10.5.3	Referring to Subjects of subordinate clauses.....	258
10.6	Modifiers of main clauses.....	259
10.6.1	Adding a location	259
10.6.2	Adding a purpose or beneficiary	259
10.6.3	Modifying how an argument carries out an action.....	260
10.6.3.1	Active nominals	260
10.6.3.2	Manner nominals	261
10.6.4	Relating sentences in texts – palunyajanu , palunyangka	262
10.6.5	Adding more information about the timing of an event.....	262

10.6.5.1	Historic time	263
10.6.6	Adding extra spatial information about the event.....	263
10.6.6.1	Directions.....	264
10.6.7	Adding more information about how the event is carried out	264
10.6.7.1	jamun ‘about to’, ‘almost’, ‘just’	265
10.6.7.2	nyamu ‘that’s all’, ‘that’s it’	265
10.6.7.3	nyamuna ‘right there’	265
10.6.7.4	purtu ‘unsuccessfully’, ‘in vain’	266
10.6.7.5	wituka ‘besides’, ‘also’	266
10.6.7.6	wulu ‘continuously’, ‘endlessly’	266
10.6.8	Adding information about a participant	266
10.6.8.1	lurrju ‘also’	266
10.6.8.2	wiyaju ‘only’	267
10.6.9	Adding speaker’s attitude.....	267
10.6.9.1	munta ‘possibly’, ‘maybe’	267
10.6.9.2	maitbi , maiti ‘possibly’, ‘maybe’	267
10.6.10	Clitics	268
10.6.10.1	Clitics indicating speaker’s attitude.....	268
10.6.10.2	Connective clitics	270
10.7	Constituent marking in the Western Desert and four northern neighbours.....	271
11	Complex sentences	273
	Introductio.....	273
11.1	Subordination	273
11.1.1	Purposive subordinate clauses.....	275
11.1.1.1	Purposive clauses with the -ra unrealised suffix	275
11.1.1.2	Purposive clauses with the -ku complementiser	276
11.1.1.3	Intentive purposives marked with -kija	278
11.1.2	Subordinate clauses marked with -jaku	281
11.1.2.1	The -jaku complementiser and cross-referencing.....	281
11.1.2.2	-jaku as a warning suffix	282
11.1.3	Relative clauses	282
11.1.3.1	Nominalisation.....	282
11.1.3.2	Temporal relative clauses with -janu	283
11.1.3.3	The -puru temporal complementiser	284
11.1.3.4	Serial Verb Constructions with temporal succession	284
11.1.3.5	Relating the timing of clauses with the particle kaji	285
11.1.3.6	Relating the timing of clauses with clitics.....	285
11.1.3.7	Nominal relative clauses.....	286
11.1.3.8	Correlative clauses with yangka and ngula	287

11.1.3.9	Conditional clauses	289
11.1.4	Avoidance subordinate clauses.....	290
11.2	Co-ordination.....	291
11.2.1	The conjunction kamu	292
11.2.2	The conjunction ka	293
11.2.3	The conjunction an	294
11.2.4	The palunya discourse connective.....	295
11.2.4.1	palunyajamu, palunyajanulu 'and after that'.....	296
11.3	-nja Subordinate clauses in the Western Desert and four non-Western Desert languages.....	296
12	Information structure.....	298
	Introduction.....	298
12.1	Word order.....	298
12.1.1	Order of constituents in a pragmatically unmarked text	299
12.1.2	Order of constituents in pragmatically unmarked clauses from a number of texts.....	300
12.1.3	Word order in other Western Desert languages	301
12.1.3.1	Yulparija	301
12.1.3.2	Ngaanyatjarra.....	301
12.1.3.3	Pitjantjatjara	301
12.1.3.4	Yankunytjatjara.....	301
12.1.4	Pragmatically ordered constituents and zero arguments	301
12.1.4.1	Zero anaphora	301
12.1.4.2	Pragmatic ordering of constituents	303
12.1.4.3	New and old information	303
12.1.4.4	Important information first	304
12.1.4.5	Topic shift	305
12.1.4.6	Contrast.....	306
12.1.4.7	Free pronouns.....	306
12.1.4.8	Answers to questions	306
12.1.4.9	Politeness	307
12.1.4.10	Morphology marking pragmatic function.....	308
12.1.5	Afterthoughts.....	309
12.1.5.1	Additional information.....	309
12.1.5.2	Additional information in a list.....	309
12.1.5.3	Clarification in another language.....	310
12.1.5.4	Hesitations.....	310
12.2	Questions	310
12.2.1	Yes/no, polar questions	310

12.2.2	Tag questions	311
12.2.2.1	kurlu	311
12.2.2.2	'you know'	311
12.2.3	Interrogative nominals	311
12.2.4	Interrogative verb	312
12.2.5	Questions	312
12.2.6	Particles used with interrogatives	313
12.3	Negation	313
12.3.1	The particle wiya	313
12.3.2	The use of English 'no'	314
12.3.3	Negative instructions	314
12.3.4	The intransitive verb wiyarringu	315
12.3.5	The suffix -munu	315
12.3.6	The privative -parni	316
12.3.7	The particle purtu 'in vain'	316
12.3.8	Lexical items which include a negative meaning	316
12.3.8.1	jurra 'leave it', 'don't touch it'	316
12.3.8.2	purtala 'missed it'	317
12.3.8.3	ngurrpa 'don't know' 'ignorant'	317
12.4	Direct and indirect speech	317
12.4.1	Direct quote complements	317
12.4.2	Indirect speech	319
Appendix: Wangkajunga texts		320
Childhood in the Desert (Nada Rawlins)		320
Desert Childhood (Elsie Thomas)		324
Trip to Kaningara (Nada Rawlins)		327
The flourbag dress (Nada Rawlins)		330
Jirntirr-jirntirpa 'Willy Wagtail' (Nada Rawlins)		333
Wartilpali yankura 'Let's go hunting' (Mayapu Elsie Thomas)		335
Wangkajunga–English word list		338
English–Wangkajunga word list		348
Main sources for information		357
References		359