

The Acquisition of Africa (1870–1914)

The Nature of International Law

By

Mieke van der Linden

BRILL
NIJHOFF

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Preface IX

- 1 New Imperialism: Imperium, Dominium and Responsibility under International Law 1
  - 1 Introduction 1
  - 2 New Imperialism 2
  - 3 New Imperialism in International Legal Discourse 7
  - 4 Dominium and Imperium 17
  - 5 Legal and Social Relevance 21
  - 6 Methodology and Case Studies 25
  - 7 Plan 32

- 2 Dominium 34
  - 1 Property Rights: Theoretical Premises 34
  - 2 European and African Perspectives 38
    - 2.1 Land Law from a European Point of View 38
    - 2.2 African Land Law 41
  - 3 Concluding Remarks: New Imperialism and Natives' Property Rights 48

- 3 Imperium 51
  - 1 Introduction 51
  - 2 Theoretical and Conceptual Framework 52
  - 3 Nineteenth-century European International Law: Sovereignty, Territory and State 55
  - 4 The African Perspective 62
  - 5 Concluding Remarks 67

- 4 Territorium et Titulus 70
  - 1 Introduction 70
  - 2 Treaties, Cession and Protectorates 72
    - 2.1 International Legal Theory 81
    - 2.2 Cession and Protectorate Treaties 88
  - 3 Conclusion 92

- 5 British Nigeria 95
  - 1 Introduction 95
  - 2 Historical Background 96

- 3 Treaties and Contracts between Britain and African Natives 106
  - 3.1 Early Stage: Cession Treaties and Trade Contracts 107
  - 3.2 The 1880s and 1890s: Protectorate Treaties 112
- 4 Legislation in the Wake of the Acquisition of Sovereignty over Territory 120
- 5 The Judiciary and Its Case Law 127
  - 5.1 Colonial Judiciary 127
  - 5.2 Case Law 131
- 6 Conclusion 137

- 6 French Equatorial Africa 139
  - 1 Introduction 139
  - 2 Historical Background 140
  - 3 French Treaty Practice in Equatorial Africa 145
    - 3.1 Cession Treaties 148
    - 3.2 Protectorate Treaties 151
    - 3.3 Evaluation of French Treaty Practices 159
  - 4 Legislation in the Wake of the Transfer of External Sovereignty 161
  - 5 Case Law and the Interpretation of Treaties 164
  - 6 Conclusion 169

- 7 German Cameroon 174
  - 1 Introduction 174
  - 2 Historical Background 174
  - 3 Treaties between Germany and Cameroonian Rulers 185
    - 3.1 Validity of Treaties 185
    - 3.2 Treaty Practice 189
  - 4 Legislation Following the Conclusion of Treaties 199
  - 5 Treaty Interpretation and Execution 210
  - 6 Conclusion 213

- 8 Ex facto ius oritur? 215
  - 1 International Law in Practice: Treaties between European States and African Polities 216
  - 2 The Legality of the Treaty-based Acquisition and Partition of Africa 227
    - 2.1 Interference with Natives' Land Ownership 228
    - 2.2 Violation of International Law 234
    - 2.3 Customary International Law Impaired 236

3	Theory versus Practice: What was International Law in the Nineteenth Century?	238
4	Conclusion	241
9	A Reflection on the Nature of International Law: Redressing the Illegality of Africa's Colonization	245
1	Introduction	245
2	The Inter-temporal Rule	246
	2.1 General Features of the Inter-temporal Rule	247
	2.2 The ICJ and the Inter-temporal Rule	252
	2.3 International Law in Its Historical Context	257
3	Impossibility of Establishing Responsibility?	260
	3.1 Non-identifiable Parties	260
	3.2 Supersession	266
4	Recognition	268
5	Conclusion	279
10	Evaluative Summary and Conclusion	282
	Chronological List of Treaties and Other Agreements	293
	Case Laws	301
	Bibliography	304
	Index	340