

BIOETHICAL AND ETHICAL ISSUES
SURROUNDING THE TRIALS
AND CODE OF NUREMBERG
Nuremberg Revisited

Edited by
Jacques J. Rozenberg

Symposium Series
Volume 74

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

Table of Contents

Foreword, Jacques J. Rozenberg	ix
Preface: Breaking the Dark Mirror, Richard A. Cohen	xiii
Introduction: From anti-Semitism and Racism to Ethics: An Epistemological Reflection on the Nuremberg Trials and Code, Jacques J. Rozenberg	1

Biological, Bioethical, and Psycho-analytic Perspectives

Do the Biologists need the Expression “Human Race”? UNESCO 1950-51, Jean Gayon	23
The Emergence of German Geneticists from the Swastika, Raphael Falk	49
Medical Ethics in Question: An Historical Perspective on Eugenism and Normality, Samuel S. Kottek	69
Biologism in the Service of Apocalyptic Thinking: A Psycho-analytic Perspective on Purity, Impurity, and Race, Ludwig Haesler	89
Medicine, the Holocaust, and the Doctors’ Trial, Joel Levi	111
The Ethics of Using Medical Data from Nazi Experiments, Baruch C. Cohen	131

Historical, Juridical, and Ethical Perspectives

The Shoah as a Crime against Humanity: Reflections on Civilization and its Annihilation, Ephraim Meir	167
Guilt, Responsibility, and Humanity, Aharon Shear-Yashuv	187

Amalek in the Holocaust-Era Orthodox Jewish Thought, Gershon Greenberg	201
Created in the Image of God: Jews and the Nations, Michael Z. Nehorai	229
The Noahide Universal Law, Nahum Rakover	239
Rights and Duties, Haim H. Cohn	263
The One and the Other: Reflections on the Ontological Roots of Politics, Shalom Rosenberg	287