
France's Relationship with Subsaharan Africa

Anton Andereggen

PRAEGER

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Tables | vii |
| Preface | ix |
| Abbreviations | xi |
| 1. History of French West Africa Until World War II | 1 |
| Conquest and "Pacification" of the Territories | 1 |
| The Establishment of French West Africa as an Administrative Unit | 4 |
| Economic Considerations in French West Africa | 8 |
| 2. History of French Equatorial Africa Until World War II | 13 |
| Exploration and Conquest of Equatorial Africa | 13 |
| The Creation of French Equatorial Africa | 16 |
| Development Problems in French Equatorial Africa | 17 |
| 3. World War II and Reorganization | 21 |
| World War II and the Résistance | 21 |
| The Brazzaville Conference of 1944 | 23 |
| The Fourth French Republic and the French Union | 24 |
| The Establishment of African Political Parties | 26 |
| 4. Loi-cadre Reforms and Charles de Gaulle's Return | 33 |
| Reorganization and Reforms | 33 |
| Reaction to the Loi-cadre Reforms | 36 |
| The Fifth Republic and the French Community | 39 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 5. Decolonization | 49 |
| The Franco-African Community | 49 |
| Continuation of the Federal Spirit | 52 |
| 6. Independence | 61 |
| France's Concept of Independence | 61 |
| African Unity Movements | 66 |
| 7. General de Gaulle and His Successors | 75 |
| General de Gaulle's African Policy | 75 |
| Institutions Serving France's African Connections | 77 |
| Pompidou and Giscard's African Policies | 79 |
| François Mitterrand's African Policies | 81 |
| 8. Cultural Considerations | 93 |
| The Status of the French Language and the Educational System | 94 |
| Other Sources of French Influence | 100 |
| 9. Economic Ties | 105 |
| Trade, Commerce, and Underdevelopment | 105 |
| The Franc Zone | 113 |
| Association with the EEC | 118 |
| Economic Assistance | 120 |
| 10. Historical Perspectives on How the French View the Africans' | 127 |
| Conclusion | 135 |
| Appendixes | 141 |
| 1. Constitution of the Fourth Republic, October 27, 1946 | 141 |
| 2. Constitution of the Fifth Republic, October 4, 1958 | 147 |
| 3. Maps | 153 |
| 4. Profiles of Individual Countries | 159 |
| Bibliography | 179 |
| Index | 191 |