

WORD ORDER IN DISCOURSE

Edited by

PAMELA DOWNING

MICHAEL NOONAN

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

JOHN BENJAMINS PUBLISHING COMPANY
AMSTERDAM/PHILADELPHIA

Contents

List of Abbreviations	ix
Word order in discourse: By way of introduction Pamela Downing	1
What are discourse principles made of? Ron Cowan	29
Agent position in the Sejarah Melayu Susanna Cumming	51
Preverbal nominals in Colville-Okanagan Michael Darnell	85
Frequency and pragmatically unmarked word order Matthew S. Dryer	105
Subject-verb word order and the function of early position Bruce B. Harold	137
Focus position in SOV languages Susan C. Herring and John C. Paolillo	163
Word order at the noun phrase level in Japanese: quantifier constructions and discourse functions Alan Hyun-Oak Kim	199
WH-clefts and left-dislocation in English conversation: cases of topicalization Kyu-hyun Kim	247
Pragmatic relations and word order in Chinese Randy J. LaPolla	297
Left shifts in strongly VSO languages Robert E. Longacre	331

The pragmatics of verb initial sentences in some ancient Indo-European languages Silvia Luraghi	355
Morphological and prosodic forces shaping word order Marianne Mithun	387
The word order of two-constituent constructions in spoken Spanish Francisco Ocampo	425
Verb initial languages and information order Doris L. Payne	449
On the discourse function of possessor movement in Emai prose narratives Ronald P. Schaefer	487
Focal attention, voice, and word order: an experimental, cross-linguistic study Russell S. Tomlin	517
Noun incorporation and object placement in discourse: the case of Guaraní Maura Velázquez-Castillo	555
Subject index	581
Author index	591