Contents

List of Contributors vii

Introduction: Citizenship in China and the West
Peter Zarrow 3

1. Civic Associations, Political Parties, and the Cultivation of Citizenship Consciousness in Modern China
Liu Zehua and Liu Jianqing 39

2. Nationalism, Citizenship, and the Old Text/New Text Controversy in Late Nineteenth Century China
Anne Cheng 61

3. The People, People's Rights, and Rebellion: The Development of Tan Sitong's Political Thought
Ingo Schäfer 82

4. Dynasty, State, and Society: The Case of Modern China
Murata Yūjirō 113

5. From Civil Society to Party Government: Models of the Citizen's Role in the Late Qing
Don C. Price 142

6. Publicists and Populists: Including the Common People in the Late Qing New Citizen Ideal
Joan Judge 165
7. Local Self-Government: Citizenship Consciousness and the Political Participation of the New Gentry-Merchants in the Late Qing
   Ma Xiaoquan 183

8. Imagining "Society" in Early Twentieth-Century China
   Michael Tsin 212

9. Liang Qichao and the Notion of Civil Society in Republican China
   Peter Zarrow 232

10. Evolving Prescriptions for Social Life in the Late Qing and Early Republic: From Qunxue to Society
    Wang Fan-shen 258

Afterword: The People, a Citizenry, Modern China
   Joshua A. Fogel 279

Glossary of Chinese Characters 283

Index 301