

Africa in Chaos

George B. N. Ayittey

St. Martin's Press
New York

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xii

PROLOGUE 1

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION: THE LOST CONTINENT 5

Two Africas Clashing

Plan of the Book

CHAPTER 2

AFRICA'S CRISES AND UNDERDEVELOPMENT 29

Crisis versus Lack of Development

Why Africa's Crises Have Persisted

The Real Causes of Africa's Crises

Resolving Africa's Crises

CHAPTER 3

THE INDIGENOUS AND THE MODERN SYSTEMS:

A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS 85

Africa's Heritage of Participatory Democracy and Confederation

Sultanism: Personal Rule

The Indigenous Economic Institutions

Statism

CHAPTER 4

THE FUNCTIONALLY ILLITERATE ELITES 119

The Shibboleth of Education

Independence and Its Aftermath

Socio-Economic Effects of Elite Megalomania

Postcolonial Development

CHAPTER 5

THE VAMPIRE AFRICAN STATE 149

Introduction

Mode of Operation

Economic Management: State Controls

CHAPTER 6

THE INEVITABLE IMPLOSION. 185

The Destructive Consequences of the Mafia State

The Prevailing Development Environment

The Implosion

CHAPTER 7

THE ACROBATICS ON REFORM 227

Introduction

Progress Report on Intellectual Freedom

Progress Report on Political Freedom

Progress Report on Economic Freedom

Why Structural Adjustment Programs Failed in Africa

Institutional Reform

The Resistance to Reform

CHAPTER 8

HOW THE WEST COMPOUNDED AFRICA'S CRISIS . . . 267

Introduction

Western Academics and Development Experts

Western Media Bias and Double Standard

The Pernicious Failure of Western Aid to Africa

Post-Cold War Western Economic Aid to Africa

How Western Charity Helped Destroy Somalia

The Role of Black Americans

Angry African Reaction

CHAPTER 9

ALTERNATIVE SOLUTIONS TO AFRICA'S CRISIS 301

Introduction

African Governments and OAU/ECA Proposals

Black American Proposals

Western Proposals

Radical Alternatives

Debt-Free Zone—A Digression

How the West Can Help African Reform

CHAPTER 10

EPILOGUE AND CONCLUSIONS 341

Summary

Africa's Intellectuals

Intellectual Mandate for the Twenty-first Century

The Ten Commandments for African Intellectuals

Caveat Emptor

Literature Cited 373

Index 387