

ROLENA ADORNO

The Polemics of Possession in Spanish American Narrative

YALE UNIVERSITY PRESS NEW HAVEN & LONDON

CONTENTS

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xv

- 1 Overview: The Polemics of Possession in Spanish American Narrative 1
- 2 Felipe Guaman Poma de Ayala and the Polemics of Possession 21
- 3 Fray Bartolomé de las Casas, Polemicist and Author 61
- 4 Councilors Warring at the Royal Court 99
- 5 Historians of War and Princely Warriors 125
- 6 The Encomendero and His Literary Interlocutors 148
- 7 The Conquistador-Chronicler and His Literary Authority 172
- 8 The Amerindian, Studied, Interpreted, and Imagined 191
- 9 The Narrative Invention of Gonzalo the Warrior 220
- 10 The Narrative Reinvention of the Conqueror-Captive 246

11	From Guancane to Macondo: Literary Places and Their Predecessors	279
12	Seeing Ghosts: The Longevity of "Serpents in Sandals"	308
	Notes	325
	Bibliography	383
	Index	415