

Buying Time

Debt and Mobility in the Western Indian Ocean

Thomas F. McDow

OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESS  ATHENS

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Note on Terms, Translation, and Transliteration	xiii
Introduction Temporizing across the Indian Ocean	1
Chapter 1 Drought and New Mobilities in the Omani Interior	24
Chapter 2 The Customs Master and Customs of Credit in Zanzibar	44
Chapter 3 Sultans at Sea: Mobility and the Omani States	61
Chapter 4 Halwa and Identity in the Western Indian Ocean World	86
Chapter 5 Tippu Tip's Kin, from Oman to the Eastern Congo	117
Chapter 6 Freed Slaves: Manumission and Mobility before 1873	145
Chapter 7 Acts for Consuls and Consular Acts: Documents, Manumission, and Ocean Travel after 1873	165
Chapter 8 A Dhow on Lake Victoria	190
Chapter 9 "Everything Is Pledged to Its Time": Salih bin Ali, Debt, and Rebellion in the Omani Interior	215

Epilogue	260
Notes	277
Bibliography	337
Index	359