

*A Destiny
Apart*

NEW ZEALAND'S SEARCH FOR NATIONAL IDENTITY

Keith Sinclair

ALLEN & UNWIN
IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE PORT NICHOLSON PRESS

Contents

PREFACE	ix
PART I: Ideas about Nations	1
1. National Models	3
2. Prophecies	15
PART II: Failures and Foundations	29
3. The Rise and Fall of the New Zealand Natives Association	31
4. The Empty Land: Literary Nationalism	46
5. Centralisation and Social Reform	61
PART III: Identities	77
6. 'Is there a New Zealand Type?'	79
7. 'Home' and 'Homies': the Empire	94
8. The 'Aussies': Australian Federation	109
PART IV: The World of Men	123
9. New Zealand Voices from South Africa, 1899–1902	125
10. 'Peace Hath its Victories': Sport	143
11. Cairo to Le Quenoy, 1914–1918	156
PART V: Interlude: Dates and Emblems	175
12. Holy Days	177
13. Signs and Songs	188

PART VI: The Peripheral Majority	195
14. Maoris	197
15. Women	209
16. Children	223
PART VII: Centenary	237
17. The Singers of Loncliness	239
PART VIII: Epilogue	255
18. Into the Second Century	257
REFERENCES	265
INDEX	285