

Robben Island and Prisoner Resistance to Apartheid

FRAN LISA BUNTMAN

The George Washington University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Abbreviations	page ix
Foreword by Ahmed M. Kathrada	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Introduction: Prison as a Source of Politics	I
2 Politics and Prison: A Background	14
3 Resistance for Survival	33
4 Resistance Beyond Survival	61
5 Prisoner Politics and Organization on Robben Island	81
6 Debates and Disagreements	112
7 Influencing South African Politics	146
8 Political Imprisonment and the State	193
9 Theorizing Islander Resistance	236
10 Beyond Robben Island: Comparisons and Conclusion	272
Appendix I: Diagrams of Robben Island Prison	293
Appendix II: Methodological Notes on Oral and Archival Sources	295
Appendix III: Capsule Biographies of Interview Respondents	299
Select Bibliography	313
Index	329