Jungian Reflections within the Cinema

A Psychological Analysis of Sci-Fi and Fantasy Archetypes

JAMES F. IACCINO

PRAEGER

Westport, Connecticut

London
Contents

Preface ix
Introduction to Jungian Archetypes xi

Part One
A Jungian Analysis of Science-Fiction Films

Chapter 1. The Star Wars Trilogy: The Space-Father Archetype 3
Chapter 2. The Star Trek Movies: In Search of the Creator Archetype 15
Chapter 3. Planet of the Apes: The Evolution of an Archetypal Shadow Species 35
Chapter 4. From Logan's Run to Battlestar: Galactica: Archetypal Rebellions Against Shadow Destroyers 55

Part Two
A Jungian Analysis of Fantasy Films

Chapter 5. Back to the Future Again and Again: Archetypal Exploits of Alchemic Travelers 79
Chapter 6. From Superman to Batman: Divided Superhero Archetypes

Chapter 7. The Indiana Jones and Highlander Chronicles: Quests for the Holy Grail Archetype

Chapter 8. The Omen Trilogy: The Growth of the Demon Child Archetype

Part Three
A Jungian Analysis of Television Archetypes

Chapter 9. Shadow Pursuers: Fanatical Figures in The Fugitive, The Incredible Hulk, Starman, and The Pretender

Final Remarks

Appendix: Science-Fiction and Fantasy Filmography

Bibliography

Index