

The Film Industry in Argentina

An Illustrated Cultural History

JORGE FINKIELMAN

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Jefferson, North Carolina, and London

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
1. From Curio to Mass Entertainment	5
The First Film Exhibitions in Argentina
The First Feature Length Films
The Beginnings of the Recording Industry and the Tango's Popularity
2. The American Film Moves Ahead.....	31
Foreign Movies Take Over
The Stagnation of Argentine Cinema
American Companies Launch Subsidiaries to Commercialize Their Own Films
The Films by Jose A. Ferreyra and Nelo Cosimi Una Nueva y Gloriosa Nación
3. The Cinema Orchestras	86
Background Music for Silent Movies
Roberto Firpo and Francisco Canaro
The Impact of Julio De Caro and His Orchestra
Orchestras and Musicians from Those Times
Argentine Jazz
Film Exhibitions in the Silent Movie Period
4. Broadcasting in Argentina	105
The Beginnings
The Rapid Development of the Broadcasting Industry Compared to Argentine Cinema
The First Transmissions of Official Ceremonies, Sports, and Other Events
The Alliance Between the Record Industry and Broadcasting The Popularity of Carlos Gardel

5. The First Sound Film Experiences in Argentina	119
The First Exhibitions
The First Argentine Sound Films
The Consequences
6. The Sound Movie Revolution	127
Its Impact
American Films in English
Argentine Sound Films
The Cinema and Tango Musicians' Crisis
7. Argentine Cinema Becomes an Industry and Hollywood Makes Films in Spanish	156
Planning Comes to Argentine Film Production
North American Films in Spanish
Carlos Gardel as a Film Star and His Tragic Death
8. Argentine Films at the Beginning of the Golden Age . .	198
The First Real Triumphs of the Argentine Screen and the Appearance of Local Film Stars
The Beginning of the Golden Age of Argentine Cinema
The Resurgence of the Tango's Popularity
Conclusions
Bibliography	251
Index	253