

FRED C. WOUDHUIZEN

Selected Luwian Hieroglyphic Texts

The Extended Version

INNSBRUCK 2011

CONTENTS

Preface.....	7
Abbreviations	9
Concordance.....	10

PART I. THE SCRIPT

I.0 Introduction.....	15
I.1 Overview and analysis of the signary.....	20
I.1.1 Concordance.....	20
I.1.2 Signary differentiated according to period of use.....	45
I.1.3 Late Bronze Age signary differentiated according to source	58
I.2 Origin, some seals, and reading	72
I.2.1 On the origin of the Luwian hieroglyphic script	72
I.2.2 Full legend seals	85
I.2.3 On the reading of Luwian hieroglyphic	89

PART II. THE TEXTS

II.0 Introduction.....	101
II.1 Texts in Late Bronze Age scribal tradition.....	110
II.1.1 Texts in transliteration and translation	110
II.1.2 System of (pro)nominal declension and verbal conjugation	130
II.1.3 Index	137
II.2 Texts in Early Iron Age scribal tradition.....	148
II.2.1 Texts in transliteration and translation	148
II.2.2 System of (pro)nominal declension and verbal conjugation	267
II.2.3 Index	319

PART III. ASPECTS OF GRAMMAR AND LANGUAGE

III.1 Numbers & number.....	381
III.2 Examples of pre- and postpositions governing a clearly indicated case ending	385

III.3 The order of forms of the enclitic pronoun	393
III.4 Luwian hieroglyphic & Indo-European	399

Part IV. APPENDICES & CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES

Appendix I: Acrophonic principle.....	421
Appendix II: Relations with the other Luwian dialects	424
Appendix III: Relations with Etruscan	433
Chronological tables	438

Bibliography	441
--------------------	-----

Fig. 1. Supplementary signs	459
Fig. 2. Map of Anatolia.....	460
Comprehensive legenda to Fig. 2	461
Postilla to section I.2.1 on the origin of Luwian hieroglyphic.....	464
Fig. 3. Two Luwian hieroglyphic MBA stamp seals.....	467