Reconstructing Jerusalem

Persian-Period Prophetic Perspectives

by

KENNETH A. RISTAU

Winona Lake, Indiana
EISENBRÄUNS
2016
Contents

Abbreviations ......................................................... ix
Acknowledgments .................................................. xi

1. Introduction ..................................................... 1
   Reconstructing Jerusalem: Outline, Method, Scope 2
   The Rise and Fall of State Ideology in Judah 6
   Problems in Post-collapse Judean Society 8

2. "No Houses Had Been Built":
   The Archaeology of Persian-Period Jerusalem .......... 13
   The Settlement 14
   Fortifications 21
   Epigraphic Evidence 66
   Burial Site and Significant Material Remains 70
   Interpretations and Regional Context 72

3. Recreating Jerusalem: The Isaianic Perspective(s) ........ 89
   Reconstruction in Deutero-Isaiah 92
   Reconstruction in Trito-Isaiah 102
   Conclusions 113

4. Revitalizing Jerusalem: The Perspective of Haggai ........ 117
   The Date and Organization of the Work 118
   The Temporal Frame and Sitz-im-Leben 120
   The Nature of the Restoration 123
   Reconstruction as a Covenant Imperative 127
   The Temple as Bourse 130
   Zerubbabel as Hoffnungsträger for the Temple's Reconstruction 132
   Conclusions 135

5. Reconsecrating Jerusalem: The Perspective of Zechariah 1-8 ... 138
   The Composition of the Text 139
   The Temple and the Community
      in the Divine Combat Cycle 149
   Conclusions 163

vii
6. Reforming Jerusalem:
   Synchronic and Diachronic Perspectives from
   Zechariah 9-14 and Malachi .................... 168
   The Explicit and Implied Imperial and Regional Context(s)  170
   Persians and Edomites in Malachi  173
   Judean Leadership and the Community  176
   The Status of the City and the Temple  181
   Conclusions  184

7. Conclusion: From Cult to Culture .................... 188
   The Two Dimensions  189
   Conclusion  194

Bibliography .................................................. 196
Index of Authors ............................................. 235
Index of Scripture ............................................ 240