

LINNAEUS, NATURAL HISTORY AND THE CIRCULATION OF KNOWLEDGE

Edited by

HANNA HODACS,
KENNETH NYBERG

and

STÉPHANE VAN DAMME

VOLTAIRE FOUNDATION
OXFORD

www.voltaire.ox.ac.uk

Contents

List of illustrations and tables	ix
Preface	xi
Notes on naming conventions	xiii
List of abbreviations	xv
HANNA HODACS, KENNETH NYBERG and STÉPHANE VAN DAMME,
Introduction: de-centring and re-centring Linnaeus	1
1. ISABELLE CHARMANTIER, Notebooks, files and slips: Carl Linnaeus and his disciples at work
	25
2. BETTINA DIETZ, What is a botanical author? Pehr Osbeck's travelogue and the culture of collaborative publishing in Linnaean botany
	57
3. HANNA HODACS, The price of Linnaean natural history: materiality, commerce and change
	81
4. STÉPHANE VAN DAMME, In the name of Linnaeus: Paris as a disputed capital of natural knowledge (1730-1789)
	113
5. JONAS GERLINGS, On the use and abuse of natural history: Linnaean science in Kant's Königsberg
	137
6. LINDA ANDERSSON BURNETT and BRUCE BUCHAN, The Edinburgh connection: Linnaean natural history, Scottish moral philosophy and the colonial implications of Enlightenment thought 161
7. NIKLAS THODE JENSEN, Negotiating people, plants and empires: the fieldwork of Johann Gerhard König in South and South East Asia (1768-1785)
	187
8. KENNETH NYBERG and MANUEL LUCENA GIRALDO, Lives of useful curiosity: the global legacy of Pehr Löfving in the long eighteenth century
	211
Summaries	235
Bibliography of works cited	239
Index	269