

THE BOSNIAN MUSLIMS

Denial of a Nation

Francine Friedman

WestviewPress

A Division of HarperCollinsPublishers

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Note on Usage and Pronunciation	xv
 Introduction: Ethnicity, the Concept of a Nation, and the Bosnian Muslims	 1
The Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism, 2
Ethnicity and the Modern State, 3
Notes, 5
 1 Origin of the Bosnian Muslims	 7
Early Balkan Settlement, 8
The Balkans in the Middle Ages, 9
Medieval Religious Practice in the Balkans, 11
Church Attacks on Heresy in Bosnia, 16
The Ottoman Invasion and Conquest of Bosnia, 16
Notes, 22
 2 Bosnian Muslims in the Ottoman Empire	 29
Social Structure, 29
Decay of the Ottoman Empire, 33
Bosnian Versus Ottoman Identification, 41
Notes, 47
 3 Bosnian Muslims Under Austro-Hungarian Rule	 57
Austro-Hungarian Occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, 57
Resistance to Austro-Hungarian Occupation, 59
Austro-Hungarian Administration of Bosnia and Herzegovina, 61
Habsburg Annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, 73
Bosnian Muslim Gains from Annexation, 75

World War I, 76
Notes, 80
4 Bosnian Muslims in the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes	89
Post-World War I Europe, 89
Creation of Yugoslavia, 91
Parliamentary Democracy in the Yugoslav Kingdom, 91
The Yugoslav Muslim Organization in Interwar Yugoslavia, 96
The Royal Dictatorship, 101
The Sporazum , 103
Bosnian Muslim Self-Identification in the Yugoslav Kingdom, 104
Bosnian Muslim Influence in Interwar Yugoslavia, 105
Conclusion, 108
Notes, 109
5 Bosnian Muslims in World War II	117
Yugoslavia's Entry into World War II, 118
Defeat of Yugoslavia, 120
Bosnian Muslims Under Fascist Rule, 122
Resistance During World War II, 126
Notes, 132
6 Growth of Bosnian Muslim Nationalism Under Tito	143
Post-World War II Yugoslavia, 143
Yugoslav National Policy, 146
Politicization of Bosnian Muslim Consciousness, 149
Rationale for Bosnian Muslim National Recognition, 164
Conclusion, 168
Notes, 168
7 Bosnian Muslims and the Dynamics of Post-Tito Politics	177
Yugoslavia After Tito, 178
Bosnian Muslim Status in Yugoslavia During the 1980s, 180
Rise of Nationalism in Bosnia and Herzegovina, 192
Notes, 198
8 Collapse of Yugoslavia and the Fate of the Bosnian Muslims	205
Yugoslavia's Democratic Elections and Their Aftermath, 206
Bosnian Muslims as a Bulwark Between Serbs and Croats, 220

Economic and Foreign Policy Implications of the Recognition of the Bosnian Muslims, 222
Conclusion, 225
Notes, 225
9 The Case of the Bosnian Muslims: Relevance for the Social Sciences	235
Factors Influencing Interethnic Tensions, 236
The Case of the Bosnian Muslims in the Former Yugoslavia, 243
Implications of the Conflict, 246
Importance of the Ethnonationalistic View of International Affairs, 253
Notes, 254
Selected Bibliography	261
About the Book and Author	277
Index	279