

COLLAPSED STATES

The Disintegration and Restoration of Legitimate Authority

edited by
I. William Zartman

BOULDER
LONDON

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Introduction: Posing the Problem of State Collapse I. William Zartman	1
PART 1 STATES COLLAPSED AND RECONSTRUCTED
2 Reconstructing the State of Chad William J. Foltz	15
3 State Collapse and Reconstruction in Uganda Gilbert M. Khadiagala	33
4 Rawlings and the Engineering of Legitimacy in Ghana Donald Rothchild	49
PART 2 CURRENT COLLAPSE AND FUTURE RESTORATION
5 Somalia: A Terrible Beauty Being Born? Hussein M. Adam	69
6 Liberia: Putting the State Back Together Martin Lowenkopf	91
7 The Heritage of Revolution and the Struggle for Governmental Legitimacy in Mozambique Barry Schutz	109
8 Remaking the Ethiopian State Edmond Keller	125

PART 3 STATES IN DANGER

- 9 The Collapse of the Socialist State:
Angola and the Soviet Union
Leonid L. Fituni 143
- 10 Zaire: Collapsed Society, Surviving State, Future Polity
Herbert Weiss 157
- 11 Algeria: Reinstating the State or Instating a Civil Society?
Azzedine Layachi 171
- 12 South Africa: State Transition and the Management of Collapse
Sipho Shezi 191

PART 4 POTENTIAL AGENTS OF RECONSTRUCTION

- 13 State Collapse: The Humanitarian Challenge to the United Nations
Francis Mading Deng 207
- 14 The Role of Foreign Intervention in African Reconstruction
Ibrahim A. Gambari 221
- 15 Democratization in Collapsed States
Marina Ottaway 235
- 16 Strongmen, State Formation, Collapse, and Reconstruction in Africa
Njuguna Ng'ethe 251

PART 5 CONCLUSIONS

- 17 Putting Things Back Together
I. William Zartman 267
- Bibliography* 275
- About the Contributors* 291
- Index* 295
- About the Book* 303