

ISLAMIC
LAW AND SOCIETY
IN THE SUDAN

CAROLYN FLUEHR-LOBBAN

Department of Anthropology

Rhode Island College

FRANK CASS

CONTENTS

Illustrations	between pages 160 and 161
Acknowledgments	viii
Preface	xi
1. Introduction to Islamic Law	1
2. History of Islamic Law in the Sudan	22
3. Structure and Procedures of the Islamic Courts	52
4. The Status of Women in Islamic Law	81
5. Islamic Marriage in the Sudan	104
6. The Law of Divorce in Practice	138
7. The Maintenance of Women, Custody and Support of Children	172
8. The Transference of Wealth and Property	202
9. Movements for Reform or Restoration of the Shari'a in the Sudan	238
Recent Developments	278
Appendix I. The Scholarly Sources	283
Appendix II. Judicial Circulars of the Sudan Shari'a Courts	296
Appendix III. Chronological List of Sudanese Grand Qadis	299
Appendix IV. Glossary of Shari'a Legal Terms	300
Bibliography	305
Index	311