

Zimbabwe: Post Independence Public
Administration Management, Policy
Issues and Constraints

Sam Agere

CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	vii
Note on Contributors.....	ix
Introduction.....	1
Part One: Public Administration
Chapter 1.....	11
The Historical Context of Public Administration: Constraints and Capacity Issues of Policy Management Sam Agere
Chapter 2.....	33
Post Colonial Development Management John Makumbe
Chapter 3.....	51
The Political and Administrative Interface: Functional Relationships Between Politicians and Civil Servants Sam Agere
Part Two: Economic Development, Planning and Management
Chapter 4.....	79
Development Planning and Strategies Tafi Chigudu
Chapter 5.....	97
The Implications and Impact of the Economic Structural Adjustment Programme Elton Razemba
Chapter 6.....	121
A Quest for Viability: The Political Economy of Reforming the Public Enterprise Sector Michael Sithole
Chapter 7.....	147
The Problems and Prospects of the Indigenisation of the Economy Elton Razemba

Part Three: The State and Social Movements

Chapter 8.....	169
The State, Workers and Industrial Relations
Lloyd Sachikonye

Chapter 9.....	191
Agrarian Reform and Peasants Organisations
Joseph Made

Chapter 10.....	215
Agricultural Co-operativisation: Management and Policy Issues
Sam Moyo

Chapter 11.....	247
Gender Policy in the Public Sector
Rudo Gaidzanwa

Part Four: Local Government and non Governmental Organisations

Chapter 12.....	269
Perspectives on Planning for Change and Development of the Local Government System
Kadmiel Wekwete

Chapter 13.....	287
The Role of International and Non-Governmental Organisations in Public Policy
Tendai Bare

Conclusion	307
-------------------------	-----