

INDIGENOUS AFRICAN INSTITUTIONS

George B. N. Ayittey

Transnational Publishers, Inc.
Ardsley-on-Hudson, New York

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION: THE RAPE OF AFRICA	xiii
Africa's Deepening Crisis	xiii
What Went Wrong?	xv
Myths and Misconceptions About Africa	xxiii
The Problem With Afrocentricism	xxvi
The Common Sense Approach to Africa's Ills	xxxvii
Elite Development Approach	xlili
Aim and Purpose of Book	xliv

CHAPTER 1: THE INDIGENOUS SOCIAL SYSTEMS

A. The Peasants' Social Structure And Organization: A Comparative Overview	1
B. African Beliefs, Religion And Customs
Philosophical Tenets	10
The Individual Versus the Society	14
The Fundamental Rights of the African People	22
The Concept of Wealth	23
Education	30
C. Summary	37

CHAPTER 2: THE INDIGENOUS LEGAL INSTITUTIONS

A. Native Courts And Customary Law	39
Jurisprudence in Stateless Societies	42
Jurisprudence in States	44
B. Contracts And Property Rights	54
Property Claims	56
Settlement of Disputes And Court Cases	60
C. Inter-Ethnic Conflicts And Disputes	66
D. Summary	67

CHAPTER 3: INDIGENOUS POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS

A. Introduction	71
B. Stateless Societies	78
Organizational Structure	80
The Igbo Government	82
The Fulani of Northern Nigeria	85
The Somali	86

The Gikuyu of Kenya	87
The !Kung of The Kalahari	88
Selection And Role Of The Headman In Stateless Societies	93

B. Government In Chiefdoms	93
Day-to-Day Administration	96
The Selection And Traditional Role Of The Chief	108
The Functions Of The Chief	117
"Corruption As A Cultural Trait" - A Digression	122
Checks Against Abuse Of Power By The Chief	124
Religious Or Supernatural Sanctions	126
Institutionalized Sanctions	127
Private and public admonitions	128
Prohibitions Against The Office Of Chieftaincy Or Kingship	129
Political Pressure From Various Groups And Associations	131
Destoolment Of The Chief (Removal From Office)	135
Spontaneous (Peasant) Responses	139

CHAPTER 4: AFRICAN KINGDOMS

A. Organizational Structure	151
The Serer State/Kingdom (Senegal)	154
The Kingdoms Of Sierra Leone (Temne And Mende)	155
The Mossi States/Kingdoms	157
The Ga Kingdom	158
The Kingdom Of Ife	160
The Kingdom Of Kongo	160
The Basoga Kingdom Of Uganda	161
The Swazi Kingdom	161
The Zulu Kingdom	163
 Exceptional Kingdoms
The Kingdom Of Dahomey	166
The Dyola Kingdom	171
 B. Traditional Role Of African Kings
The African Concept Of The Universe	173
The King's Link To The Universe	173

- C. The Selection And Removal Of African Kings 181
 - The King Of Cayor (Former Province Of Ghana) 182
 - The Bur (Serer King) 183
 - The Ga King 184
 - The Asante King 185
 - The Oni or Oba (Yoruba King) 188
 - The Kongo King 191
 - The Luba King 192
 - The Zibondo of Basoga 192
 - The Kabaka of Buganda 193

CHAPTER 5: GOVERNMENT IN NATIVE AFRICAN EMPIRES

- A. By Assimilation 197
 - The Mandinka (Islamic) Empire, 1870-98 197
 - Eighteenth Century Zande Kingdom 198
 - The Zulu Kingdom 199
- B. By Indirect Rule
 - The Ancient Empire Of Ghana 200
 - The Wolof Empire 202
 - The Mali Empire 204
 - Nineteenth Century Asante Empire 206
 - The Oyo Empire (Yoruba) 208
 - The Kingdom of Benin 217
 - The Kanuri Empire (Northern Nigeria) 219
 - The Lunda Empire 224
 - The Kingdom of Kuba 226
 - The Empire of Mwene Mutapa (Great Zimbabwe) 229

CHAPTER 6: THE NATIVE SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT: A SUMMARY AND AN ASSESSMENT

- A. Summary
 - 1. Chiefdoms And Kingdoms 231
 - Stability 234
 - Indigenous Curbs Against Despotism 237
 - Native Freedom Of Expression 240
 - Peasants' Power 242
 - 2. The Empires 245
 - Checks Against African Imperialism 248
 - Absence of Strong Centralized Rule 250

- B. A Summary Of The Features Of The Indigenous Political System 257
- C. The Indigenous African Constitution 260
- D. The Indigenous African Political System: Weaknesses And Strengths 266

CHAPTER 7: THE INDIGENOUS ECONOMIC SYSTEM

- A. The "Economic Problem" 273
- B. Production 279
 - Organization and Occupations 279
 - The Factors of Production: Supplies and Ownership 284
 - Land tenure 285
 - Land Reform-A Digression 304
 - Labor 306
 - Capital 308
 - Entrepreneurship and the Profit Motive 310

CHAPTER 8: THE INDIGENOUS ECONOMIC SYSTEM: DISTRIBUTION

- A. Free Market And Free Trade Tradition 319
 - Markets Types and Organization 319
 - Market Regulations And Controls 324
 - Market Tolls And Taxes 325
 - The Importance Of Markets In Indigenous Africa 327
 - Media Of Exchange 336
 - Market Prices 339
 - Role Of Women In The Distribution System 347
 - Means of Transportation/Roads 356
- B. The Role Of Government In The Indigenous Economy 356
 - Government Intervention 356
 - Taxes 364
- C. Summary Of The Features Of The Indigenous Economic System. 368
- D. The Indigenous Economic System: An Assessment 370

CHAPTER 9: THE INDIGENOUS INSTITUTIONS UNDER COLONIALISM

- A. Colonialism 378
 - Early Contacts and Scramble for Africa 378
 - Resistance Against Colonialism 381
 - Colonial Atrocities 384
 - African Chiefs Under Colonialism 386
 - Colonial Policies 390
 - The Native Institutions Under Colonialism 396
- B. An Assessment 407
- C. Summary 413

CHAPTER 10: THE POST-COLONIAL DESTRUCTION AND BETRAYAL OF AFRICA

- A. Black Neo-Colonialism 415
 - Independence And Aftermath 416
 - The Origins Of The African Crisis 418
 - Defective Leadership 419
- B. Development By Imitation: The "So-Too-Must-We" Syndrome 422
 - The Denigration Of The Indigenous 423
 - Misconstruction Of The Notion Of Development 423
- C. Imposition Of Alien Systems On Africa 426
 - One-party State System 427
 - "Swiss bank" Socialism 429
- D. The Economic Ruination Of Africa 432
 - The Golden Age Of Peasant Prosperity 433
 - Ghana's Experience With Price Controls 436
- E. The Destruction Of African Heritage 438
 - The Indigenous Versus The Colonial Institutions 439
 - The Plight Of The African Chief 442
- F. The Political Destruction Of Africa 448
 - The Institution Of One-Man Dictatorships 449
 - Intellectual Repression 450
 - Military Rule: The Scourge Of Africa 458
 - How To Rid Africa Of Barbarous Military Regimes 472
 - Summary 474

CHAPTER 11: EPILOGUE: CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

- A. Africa Beyond the 1990s 477
- B. Botswana: The Shining Black Economic Star 478
 - The Keys To Botswana's Success 481
 - Developing The Rest Of Black Africa 483
- C. The Sequence Of Reform 488
 - Intellectual Reform (Freedom Of Expression) 493
 - The Futility Of Banning Books — A Digression 494
 - Political Development 497
 - How A Modern African Nation Should Be Governed 500
 - Growing Demands For Democratic Pluralism 502
 - Ghana's District Assemblies — A Closer Look 506
 - Economic Development 511
 - Benin: A Test Case 511
 - Lesson Under A Mango Tree 514

MAPS

- Map 1: Principal Peoples and Languages of Africa 517
- Map 2: Trans-Saharan Trade Routes 518
- Map 3: Pre-Colonial African States and Kingdoms, 10th - 16th Century 519
- Map 4: Pre-Colonial African States and Kingdoms, 18th - 19th Century 520
- Map 5: Colonial Africa - 1913 522
- Map 6: Political Map of Africa - 1990 523

BIBLIOGRAPHY 523

INDEX 537