

Significant Violence

---

*Oppression and Resistance in the Narratives
of Juan Goytisolo, 1970–1990*

BRADLEY S. EPPS

CLARENDON PRESS · OXFORD
1996

Contents

---

A Note on Translations and Editions	xiii
INTRODUCTION	1
1. REIVINDICACIÓN DEL CONDE DON JULIÁN (1970)	22
The Politics of Ventriloquism:
Cava, Revolution, and Sexual Discourse	22
The Circle of Pain and the Shifting Shape of
Liberation: Irony, Truth, and Destruction	60
Queer Cruelty: Homosexuality,
Misogyny, Homophobia	96
2. JUAN SIN TIERRA (1975)	127
Nomadic Territories and Other Improprieties	127
Coprophilia, Onanism, and Textuality	160
Land without Women: The Delimited Paradise of
Pleasure	178
3. MAKBARA (1980)	190
The Burial of the Inspiring Voice:
Loss, Otherness, and Writing	190
Love among the Ruins: The Dialectic of
Utopia and Ideology	221
Slit Subjects and Whole Spaces:
The Dialectic of Ideology and Utopia ( bis )	242
4. PAISAJES DESPUÉS DE LA BATALLA (1982)	272
The Haunting Question of Identity:
The Author as Revenant	272
Declined Humanity, Lost Reality, Weak Thought,
and Other Opportunities	282
Topographies of Extravagant, Everyday Life	311
Terror in the Text: Of Commies and Queers	357

5. LAS VIRTUDES DEL PÁJARO SOLITARIO (1988)	379
The Ecstasy of Disease: History and the Maladies of Interpretation	379
Mysticism, Metaphor, and AIDS	417
The Flow of Hermeneutics and the Spectacle of Suffering	429
CONCLUSION	450
Bibliography	468
Index	497