Development Administration

From Underdevelopment to Sustainable Development

O. P. Dwivedi
Professor of Public and Environmental Administration
Department of Political Studies
University of Guelph

M
St. Martin's Press

Contents

List of Acronyms ix

Preface xi

1 The First Four Decades of Development Theory and Administration 1

The Concept of Development Administration 1
The Administration of Underdevelopment: Theory-Building 4
The First Three Decades of Development: 1950 to 1970 8
The Fourth Decade of Development: The 1980s 13
Concluding Observations 17

2 Development Administration in the Fifth Decade 25

The Four Decades of Disappointments 25
The Fifth Decade: The 1990s – Dilemma and Responses 28
Challenges Facing Development Administration in the Twenty-First Century 35
Conclusion 38

3 Bureaucratic Morality, Corruption and Accountability 43

Introduction 43
Administrative Culture and Morality 45
The Cultural Context of Bureaucratic Morality 47
Bureaucratic Corruption: A Colonial Legacy? 50
The Impact of Political Corruption 51
An Accountability Perspective 53
The Moral Dimension of Public-Sector Management 58
Administrative Theology 59
Emerging Challenges 63

4 Science, Technology Transfer and Underdevelopment 69

The Technological Imperative: An Introduction 69
Technology: Its Meaning, Nature, and Significance 70

The Context of Science and Technology 72
Concluding Remarks 81
Postscript: Emergent Issues 83

5 Environment and Development 93

Introduction 93
Environmentally Sound and Sustainable Development (ESSD) 94
An Institutional Framework for Protecting the Environment 97
A Policy Framework for Environmental Protection 99
Action Plan for ESSD 105
The Jurisdictional Aspect of Institutional Arrangements for Environmental Administration 113
Accountable Management, Consultation and Co-optation for Protecting the Environment 120
Training of Administrators for ESSD 121
Necessary Ingredients for Effective Environmental Administration 124
A Third World Perspective 127
Conclusion 130

6 When Means and Ends are at Variance: Administration for Sustainable Development 135

International Inducement for Administrative Reforms 135
Organizing to Govern 139
Specific Issues 140
Administration to Manage Common Interests and The Common Good 146

Select Bibliography 151
Index 157