

RESISTANCE AND HOPE

South African essays in honour of Beyers Naudé

EDITED BY CHARLES VILLA-VICENCIO &
JOHN W. DE GRUCHY

David Philip: Cape Town and Johannesburg
Wm. B. Eerdmans: Grand Rapids

Contents

The authors and editors	vii
Foreword by Denis E. Hurley	ix
Preface	xi

BEYERS NAUDÉ: HIS LIFE AND WORK

Charles Villa-Vicencio	A life of resistance and hope	3
John W. de Gruchy	A short history of the Christian Institute	14
Stephen M. de Gruchy-Patta	Beysers Naudé: a bibliography	27

AFRIKANER AND REFORMED

Jaap Durand	Afrikaner piety and dissent	39
Willem Saayman	Rebels and prophets: Afrikaners against the system	52
David Bosch	The fragmentation of Afrikanerdom and the Afrikaner churches	61
Allan Boesak and Wolfram Kistner	Proclamation and protest: The lost sons, and Outside the gate	74

THEOLOGY IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONTEXT

John W. de Gruchy	Theologies in conflict: the South African debate	85
Frank Chikane	Doing theology in a situation of conflict	98
Itumeleng Mosala	African Independent churches: a study in socio-theological protest	103
Charles Villa-Vicencio	Theology in the service of the state: the Steyn and Eloff Commissions	112
Buti Tlhalagale	Towards a black theology of labour	126

ECUMENICAL VISION AND ACTION

Gabriel Setiloane	The ecumenical movement in Africa: from mission church to moratorium	137
-------------------	--	-----

Margaret Nash	Ecumenical vision and reality in South Africa	148
Desmond Tutu	Spirituality: Christian and African	159
Peter Randall	Spro-cas revisited: the Christian contribution to political debate	165
James Cochrane	The churches and the trade unions	174
Albert Nolan	The option for the poor in South Africa	189
References		199