

The Path to Vietnam

---

ORIGINS OF THE
AMERICAN COMMITMENT TO SOUTHEAST ASIA

Andrew J. Rotter

Cornell University Press

ITHACA AND LONDON

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
PART I
THE STAGE IS SET: THE REDISCOVERY OF ASIA
<hr/>
1 The Domestic and Foreign Contexts of the United States' Southeast Asian Policy, 1948-1949	13
PART II
THE PROBLEMS UNFOLD, 1948-1949
<hr/>
2 Japan: The New Urgency of Reconstruction	35
3 Great Britain and the Dollar Gap: The Malayan Link	49
4 The United States, Nationalism, and Colonialism in Postwar Southeast Asia	70
5 Shifts in United States Policy toward the Far East and the World, Autumn 1949	103
PART III
THE SOLUTIONS AND THEIR AFTERMATH, 1949-1950 AND BEYOND
<hr/>
6 The Reconstruction of Japan: The Southeast Asia Connection	127
	vii

7	The Reconstruction of Great Britain: Triangular Trade and the Limits of American Commitment	141
8	The Reconstruction of Western Europe and the Beginning of United States Aid to Southeast Asia	165
9	The Korean Intervention and After	204
	Abbreviations Used in the Notes	223
	Notes	225
	Bibliography	262
	Index	273