

HAUSALAND DIVIDED

Colonialism and Independence in Nigeria and Niger

WILLIAM F. S. MILES

Cornell University Press

Ithaca and London

Contents

Illustrations, Maps, Tables, and Figures	xi
Preface	xiii
A Note on Hausa Orthography	xviii
1. Introduction: Rehabilitating the Borderline	1
2. The Setting	20
3. Ethnic Identity and National Consciousness: Who Are the Hausa?	42
4. Boundary Considerations	60
5. Colonizing the Hausa: British and French	91
6. According to the Archives . . .	117
7. Chieftaincy in Yardaji and Yekuwa	145
8. Arziki vs. Talauci : The Economic Comparison	175
9. Educating the Hausa	227
10. Islam: The Religious Difference	248
11. Village Cultures Compared	274
12. Transcending the Tangaraho	304
Appendix A. Fieldwork Strategy: The Choice of a Site	319

Appendix B. Administration of Self-Identity Surveys	322
Appendix C. Selected Characteristics, Daura Local Government and Magaria Arrondissement, 1978–1985	324
Appendix D. Extracts from Anglo-French Treaties Delimiting the Nigeria-Niger Boundary, 1906–1910	325
Appendix E. Communiqué of the Nigeria-Niger Transborder Cooperation Workshop, Kano, July 2–8, 1989	328
Appendix F. Glossary	333
Bibliography	343
Index	363