

PATRONS OF PALEONTOLOGY

How Government Support Shaped a Science

---

Jane P. Davidson

Indiana University Press

CONTENTS

---

xiii	INTRODUCTION
1	1. The Beginnings of Government Support for Paleontology
28	2. Eighteenth-Century and Early Nineteenth-Century Paleontologists and Patrons
50	3. Developments in Government Support for Paleontology in the United States between 1830 and about 1880
110	4. Paleontology in Mid-Nineteenth-Century Surveys Outside the United States
125	5. Government Support for Paleontology in the Late Nineteenth Century and the Turn of the Twentieth Century: 1880 to about 1940
158	Conclusion: The Chain of Paleontology
173	APPENDIX: GLOSSARY OF PROMINENT PATRONS AND PALEONTOLOGISTS
199	ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF PRIMARY SOURCES
219	BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SECONDARY SOURCES
229	INDEX