

AFRICA BEYOND 2000

Essays on Africa's Political and Economic Development in the Twenty-First Century

Edited by:

Dr. S. C. SAXENA

KALINGA PUBLICATIONS

DELHI

2001

Contents

	Page
Preface	i
Contributors	v
Introduction S. C Saxena	1
1. The African Renaissance: A Triple Legacy of Skills, Values and Gender Ali A. Mazrui	29
2. The African Renaissance: Reinventing African Identity Pal Ahluwalia	61
3. Ethnic Pluralism and the Democratization Process in Post-Cold War Africa P. Godfrey Okoth	81
4. Africa and the Democratic Tradition: Into the Twenty-First Century Paul Nursey-Bray	105
5. Africa and Political Stability in the Twenty-First Century E. Ikę Udogu	127
6. Democracy, Good Governance and Development: Africa's Major Concerns in the Twenty-First Century S. C. Saxena	155
7. Assessing the Impact of Corruption in Africa: Need for Accountability in the New Era Okori Uneke	197

8. The Future of Human Rights in Sub-Saharan Africa Joseph Takougang	237
9. Civil Wars in Africa George Klay Kieh, Jr.	265
10. Towards the Creation of an African Civil-Military Relations Tradition Rocky Williams	293
11. Africa in the Emerging International System K. Mathews	327
12. Old Challenges in a New Millennium: Prospects for Regional Cooperation and Stability in Southern Africa Roy Jankielsohn	361
13. Striking a Balance for Mutual Renewal: Africa and the United Nations Paul-Henri Bischoff	385
14. Politico-Economic Aspects of Global Liberalization: Sub-Saharan Africa's Development Dilemma R. R. Ramchandani	415
Conclusion S. C. Saxena	449
Bibliography Sharmila S. Karnik	459