

Visualizing Jewish Narrative

Jewish Comics and Graphic Novels

Edited by Derek Parker Royal

Bloomsbury Academic
An imprint of Bloomsbury Publishing Plc

B L O O M S B U R Y
LONDON • OXFORD • NEW YORK • NEW DELHI • SYDNEY

Contents

Contributors	x
Foreword Danny Fingeroth	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: Visualizing Jewish Narrative Derek Parker Royal	1
Part 1 Picturing Jewish Identity
1 Thinly Disguised (Autobio)Graphical Stories: Will Eisner's Life, in Pictures Lan Dong	15
2 "Not a Word for Little Girls!": Knowledge, Word, and Image in Leela Corman's Unterzakhn Tahneer Oksman	29
3 Jewish Sexualities in J. T. Waldman's Megillat Esther Matt Reingold	41
4 "You Wouldn't Shoot Your Fellow Jews": Jewish Identity and Nostalgia in Joann Sfar's Klezmer Nicole Wilkes Goldberg and James Goldberg	55
5 Feiffer's Jewish Voice Ira Nadel	67
6 There Goes the Neighborhood: Cycling Ethnoracial Tensions in Will Eisner's Dropsie Avenue Derek Parker Royal	81
"Jews and Superheroes" Eli Valley	95
Part 2 Jewish Engagements with Comic Genres
7 The Servant: Marvel Comics and the Golem Legend Robert G. Weiner	101

- 8 “America Makes Strange Jews”: Superheroes, Jewish Masculinity, and Howard Chaykin’s Dominic Fortune
Brannon Costello 115
- 9 Converting Schmaltz into Chicken Fat: Will Elder and the Judaization of American Comedy
Daniel M. Bronstein 129
- 10 The Third Temple: Alternative Realities’ Depiction of Israel in Israeli Comics and What it Tells Us about Political Consensus
in Israeli Society
Ofer Berenstein 141
- Part 3 Jewish Comics, the Holocaust, and Trauma
- 11 The Search: A Graphic Narrative for Beginning to Teach
about the Holocaust
Wendy Stallard Flory 157
- 12 Picturing “The Holiest Thing”: Joe Kubert’s Children of the Warsaw Ghetto
Samantha Baskind 171
- 13 Trauma in Gaza: The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict through the Eyes of the Graphic Novelist
Ellen Rosner Feig 185
- 14 “To Night the Ensiled Word”: Intervocality and Postmemorial
Representation in the Graphic Novel about the Holocaust
Jean-Philippe Marcoux 199
- “How Shaloman Was Born”
Al Wiesner 213
- Part 4 Representation of Israel, Biblical Text, and Legend
- 15 The Art of Persuasion and Propaganda: The Israeli-Palestinian
Conflict in Comic Books and Graphic Novels
Chantal Catherine Michel 221
- 16 Strange Encounters in Rutu Modan’s Exit Wounds and “Jamilti”
Stephen E. Tabachnick 231

17	The "Outsider": Neil Gaiman and the Old Testament Cyril Camus	241
18	Jewish Giants: Nephilim, Rephaim, and the IDF Tof Eklund	257
	Bibliography	269
	Index	290