

ANTI-AMERICANISM

*Critiques at Home and Abroad
1965–1990*

PAUL HOLLANDER

New York Oxford
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
1992

Contents

PART I INSTITUTIONAL SETTINGS

- 1. Introduction: The Persistence of the Radical Critiques, 3
- 2. The Churches: New Voices of Social Protest, 81
- 3. Higher Education: Reservoir of the Adversary Culture, 146
- 4. The Mass Media: Popularizer of Social Criticism, 215

PART II RESULTS AT HOME

- 5. The Pilgrimage to Nicaragua, 259
- 6. The Worldview of College Students, 307

PART III CRITIQUES ABROAD

- 7. The Third World, 333
- 8. Western Europe, 367
- 9. Mexican and Canadian Intellectuals, 411
- 10. Conclusions: Anti-Americanism, Decadence, and the Collapse of Communism, 443

References, 469

Index, 505