

*Ballet
under Napoleon*

Ivor Guest

DANCE
BOOKS

Contents

Introduction	page 1
1. Surviving the Terror	5
The Opéra ballet in 1793— The School of Dance— Coping with the sans-culottes — Les Muses — The Festival of Reason— Gardel and the Committee of Public Safety— The Opéra moves to the Rue de la Loi— La Rosière républicaine .
2. A Still-Born Republican Ballet	24
A great republican ballet is conceived— Misappropriation of the production grant— Guillaume Tell 's relevance to the Revolution— Twenty years of wasted effort
3. Rays of Hope in Difficult Times	33
Gardel's choreographer's block— The Opéra after Thermidor— Gardel remarries— The little band of ballerinas
4. The Shifting Balance of Power	43
Recovery under the Directory— Reorganisation of the School of Dance— André Deshayes and the royalist agent— Gaétan Vestris's benefit— Auguste Vestris under surveillance— Clotilde and the royalist uprising— The ballet-opera dispute— Collapse of the Artistes' Committee— Début of the Taglionis
5. Milon Passes his Test	62
The search for an assistant to Gardel— Louis Milon— Pygmalion at the Ambigu-Comique— Francoeur dispossessed— Héro et Léandre — The coup d'état of Brumaire
6. La Dansomanie	73
Devismes and Bonet take charge— Début of Armand Vestris— The revival of social life— Gardel at home— La Dansomanie — The first Foyer de la Danse
7. Milon in the Ascendant	91
Pygmalion revived at the Opéra— Assassination attempts— The combat scene in Les Horaces — Les Noces de Gamache

- 8. Three Young Dancers: Two Losses and a Gain106
Les Mystères d'Isis— Bigottini's début— Le Retour de Zéphire— André Deshayes leaves in disgruntled mood— Gardel uses circus horses— The sad end of Adrienne Chameroy
- 9. Dauberval and Noverre Revived122
Daphnis et Pandrose— The fragile peace of Amiens— The banning of Lucas et Laurette— Aumer resurrects Dauberval
 ballets at the Porte-Saint-Martin— Marie Quériau— Auguste Vestris's benefit and the revival of Médée— Louis Henry and other débutants
- 10. The Rise of Louis Duport141
 Duport's training— His extraordinary impact— His congenital physical weakness— The Opéra suspects malingering— The threat to Vestris— Une Demi-heure de caprice— Mlle Coulon's benefit
- 11. Achille a Scyros157
 Ballet during the Coronation season. Achille à Scyros. Luce de Lancival. Duport's reluctance to accept the title rôle. Cherubini's score. Duport abandons the rôle. Later interpreters.
- 12. Duport in the Ascendant179
 Duport's choreographic ambitions— The success of his intrigues—Acis et Galathée— Dominique Lefebvre— Napoleon shocked by the pas de bacchante— Berchoux's La Danse
- 13. Louis Henry Stakes his Claim191
 Aumer at the Porte-Saint-Martin— Marie Quériau— Mlle Clotilde finds her ideal partner— Two quarrelsome ballerinas— Louis
 Henry finds a protector— Gardel and Milon protest to Napoleon—
 Henry's L'Amour à Cythère— Aumer and Henry come to blows
- 14. Duport's Figaro.....205
 Gardel and the Austerlitz gala— Débuts: Salvatore Taglioni at the Opéra and Victoria Bossi del Caro at the Porte-Saint-Martin—Duport stages Figaro and Le Volage fixé
- 15. Two Choreographers and a Single Subject221
 Gardel puts himself out for a young composer— Napoleon's reorganisation of the Paris theatres— Gardel and Aumer each stage versions of Paul et Virginie

- 16. Mlle Aubry's Fall238
Milon's Retour d'Ulysse— The accident to Mlle Aubry at the première— Josephine faints, and Napoleon intervenes— An inexperienced machinist attempts to shift the blame— Chevigny's triumph as a mime
- 17. Louis Henry Flies the Nest253
A long convalescence turns Henry's thoughts to choreography— Atala at the Porte-Saint-Martin— The Opéra objects, and Napoleon closes the Porte-Saint-Martin— Henry flees to Italy
- 18. Tales of Ancient Rome263
Napoleon's return after Tilsit— Gardel on the Opéra's malaise— Luçay and Bonet replaced— Le Triomphe de Trajan and La Vestale— Aumer's Amours d'Antoine et de Cléopâtre— Another triumph for Chevigny— Aumer retires
- 19. The Perfection Class281
Favre-Guiardele's proposal— Gardel's initial reluctance— Favre-Guiardele appointed, but fails to meet expectations— He is replaced by Coulon
- 20. Comings and Goings of Men285
Duport's attempt to resign— Picard tries to placate him— His unacceptable demands— His flight to Russia and his later career— The débuts of Albert, Anatole and Montjoie— The death of Gaétan Vestris
- 21. An Angry Mars and a Forgiving Alexander296
Vénus et Adonis— Napoleon's displeasure— Alexandre chez Apelles— Gardel's treatment compared with Noverre's
- 22. Claques, Débuts and Imperial Tribute306
Purveyors of claques— First sight of Geneviève Gosselin— Charles Vestris— Gardel's ballets for Le Triomphe de Trajan— La Fête de Mars— Napoleon takes a new wife— Vertumne et Pomone— Persée et Andromaque

- 23. L'Enlèvement des Sabines 323
 The death of Noverre— France's new Empress— L'Enlèvement des Sabines— Theft of costumes on the road to Fontainebleau— Mme Milon creates a scene
- 24. L'Enfant Prodigue 334
 Gardel's L'Enfant prodigue— Bigottini given a leading rôle— Vestris's success— Geoffroy's reflections on pantomime— Picard's sensitivity to criticism
- 25. Dancing to the Fall of the Empire 346
 Gardel's mortification at the rejection of Méléagre— Geneviève Gosselin bursts into prominence— Débuts of Paul, Ferdinand and Constance Gosselin— Bigottini's triumph in Nina— The retirement of Chevigny
- 26. Napoleon Falls, and Congress Dances 366
 War comes to France— Napoleon's fall— The Allied sovereigns in Paris— Le Retour du lys— Influx of foreign visitors— Bigottini charms the Congress of Vienna— L'Épreuve villageoise
- 27. Didelot Breaks Through 381
 Didelot's arrival in Paris during the Hundred Days— Gardel's attempts to frustrate his plans— Didelot finds a protector after Waterloo, and his ballet is accepted
- 28. Flore et Zéphire 398
 Its long gestation— The earlier versions— Didelot's difficulties— The final scenario— The flying scenes cause a sensation— The verdict of Paris— The ballet's later history
- 29. Louis Henry as Hamlet and Samson 414
 Henry's years in Naples with Marie Quériau— Hamlet and Samson at the Porte-Saint-Martin
- 30. Le Carnaval de Venise 425
 Dissension at the top— Le Carnaval de Venise— Elie's Punchinello— Marie Gardel retires— Oscar Byrne— Bigottini and Albert tempted— Les Sauvages de la Mer du Sud

31. The Duke and the Opera-Girl	435
Dynastic obligations of the Duc de Berry— His affair with Mlle Virginie— A royal marriage is arranged— Les Mariages de Caserte — Louis XVIII's anger— The Duke unrepentant
32. Problems with Proserpine	443
The Paris début of Carlo Blasis— Frédéric Blache at the Porte-Saint-Martin— Proserpine — Gardel replies to an anonymous critic
33. A Flurry of Farewells	455
Financial restraints and an appeal to the middle ground— The ballet de genre — Le Séducteur du village — The death of Geneviève Gosselin— La Servante justifiée — Three veterans take benefits— Age and Auguste Vestris
34. The Last Night	466
The assassination of the Duc de Berry— A secret assignation?— The later life of Virginie— The opera house demolished
35. Farewell to the Master	475
Gardel's last years of activity— Retirement brings bereavements and declining health— Bournonville's memories of the master — Gardel's legacy
Appendices
A. Ballets created at the Paris Opéra, December 1793 – February 1820...	484
B. Opera divertissements produced at the Paris Opéra, 1794–1819.....	491
C. Principal dancers at the Paris Opéra, 1793–1820.....	494
D. Ballets performed at the Théâtre de la Porte-Saint-Martin, 1802–19....	497
E. Ballets given at other Paris theatres, 1794–1819.....	498
F. Ballets produced by Pierre Gardel for operas presented at the Imperial court, 1809–11.....	499
G. Identified borrowings from Haydn in ballet scores of the Paris Opéra. 1793–1819.....	500
Bibliography	501
Index	512