

DEFENDERS AND DEFENSE OF BIG BUSINESS
IN THE UNITED STATES, 1880-1900

Jack Blicksilver

Garland Publishing, Inc.
New York & London ★ 1985

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ii
Introduction	iii
I. THE BACKGROUND
I. The Rise of Big Business: Causes and Consequences	1
II. THE ATTACK
II. Patterns of Protest: Collectivist and Individualist Panaceas	56
III. Patterns of Protest: The Ethical Approach	85
IV. Patterns of Protest: The Voice of the Victims	118
II. THE DEFENSE
V. Railroads and the Public	147
VI. The Railroad Elite Take the Stand	190
VII. In Self-Defense: The Business Leaders and Allies	224
VIII. Laissez Faire and the Middle Class	284
IX. Apologia of the Intellectuals	312
X. Organized Labor and the Trusts	338
Conclusion	395
Bibliography	400