

Popular Politics and Resistance Movements in South Africa

Edited by William Beinart and Marcelle C Dawson

WITS UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Contributors	vii
List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	x
1 Popular politics and resistance movements in South Africa, 1970-2008 William Beinart	1
2 The Durban strikes of 1973: Political identities and the management of protest Julian Brown	31
3 'There's more to it than slurp and burp': The Fatti's & Moni's strike and the use of boycotts in mass resistance in Cape Town Tracy Carson	52
4 The role of the African National Congress in popular protest during the township uprisings, 1984-1989 Thula Simpson	76
5 Strategies of struggle: The Nelson Mandela campaign Genevieve Klein	94
6 From removals to reform: Land struggles in Weenen in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa Chizuko Sato	117
7 From popular resistance to populist politics in the Transkei Tim Gibbs	141
8 'It's a beautiful struggle': Siyayinqoba/Beat it! and the HIV/AIDS treatment struggle on South African television Rebecca Hodes	161

Contents

9	The Nelson Mandela Museum and the tyranny of political symbols Mfaniseni Fana Sihlongonyane	189
10	Black nurses' strikes at Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto, 1948-2007 Simonne Horwitz	207
11	The 'New Struggle': Resources, networks and the formation of the Treatment Action Campaign (TAC) 1994-1998 Mandisa Mbali	227
12	New social movements as civil society: The case of past and present Soweto Kelly Rosenthal	243
13	'Phansi Privatisation! Phansi!': The Anti-Privatisation Forum and ideology in social movements Marcelle C. Dawson	266
	Endnotes	286
	Bibliography	338
	Index	357