

Irish Studies

A GENERAL INTRODUCTION

Edited by

Thomas Bartlett      Chris Curtin

Riana O'Dwyer      Gearóid Ó Tuathaigh

GILL AND MACMILLAN

Dublin

BARNES & NOBLE BOOKS

Totowa, New Jersey

CONTENTS

---

Introduction: What is Irish Studies?	1
1. Ireland: Habitat, Culture and Personality Mary Cawley	7
2. The Legacy of the Middle Ages Gearóid MacNiocaill	20
3. Gaelic Culture in Crisis: The Literary Response 1600-1850, Seán Ó Tuama	28
4. 'What Ish My Nation?': Themes in Irish History 1550-1850, Thomas Bartlett	44
5. Emigration and Exile Chris Curtin, Riana O'Dwyer, Gearóid Ó Tuathaigh	60
6. The Irish Tradition and Nineteenth-Century Fiction: A Review, Patrick Sheeran	87
7. Writing in Gaelic since 1880 Noel McGonagle	98
8. Translation and Transition: Writing in English 1700-1900, Riana O'Dwyer	115
9. From United Kingdom to Divided Island: Aspects of the Irish Experience 1850-1922 Gearóid Ó Tuathaigh	126
10. Politics and Society in Post-Independence Ireland Tom Boylan, Chris Curtin, Liam O'Dowd	152
11. Twentieth-Century Irish Literature Gerald Dawe, D.E.S. Maxwell, Riana O'Dwyer	173
12. A Changing Society: Ireland since the 1960s Tom Boylan, Chris Curtin, Michael Laver	192
13. From Megalith to Megastore: Broadcasting and Irish Culture, Luke Gibbons	221
Index	235